

Contents

Preface .....	7
Introduction .....	9
Gabriele Rosenthal and Artur Bogner
Biographies—Discourses—Figurations: Methodological considerations from the perspectives of social constructivism and figural sociology .....	15
Artur Bogner and Gabriele Rosenthal
Familial and life (hi)stories of former child soldiers of the LRA in northern Uganda .....	50
Artur Bogner, Gabriele Rosenthal and Josephine Schmiereck
Illegalized migration courses from the perspective of biographical research and figural sociology: The land border between Spain and Morocco .....	103
Gabriele Rosenthal, Eva Bahl and Arne Worm
Civil war and the figurations of illegalized migration: Biographies of Syrian migrants coming to the European Union ...	160
Arne Worm
Precarious transnational biographies: Moroccan juveniles in the Spanish enclaves of Ceuta and Melilla .....	185
Eva Bahl

A mixed family of long-time residents and internal migrants in East Jerusalem: The established-outsider figuration of 'Hebronites' and 'Jerusalemite families' in the context of the Israeli occupation . . . . .	209
Johannes Becker
Toward a renewed marginalization of the Palestinian refugees? Transformations of we-images, patterns of interpretation and established-outsider relations in the Palestinian society of the West Bank since the 1970s . . . . .	236
Hendrik Hinrichsen
Palestinian women in Haifa—Resistance as empowerment . . . . .	258
Nicole Witte
Transcription symbols . . . . .	281
Works cited . . . . .	282
About the authors . . . . .	306
Index . . . . .	309