

Table of Contents

SAPERE V
Preface to this Volume..... VII

A. Introduction

Introduction (Sara Lanna) 3

1. The Author and His Historical Context 4

1.1. A Citharodic Poet from Crete..... 4

1.2. First a Slave, then a Freedman at Rome..... 5

1.3 At the Court of Antoninus Pius 7

1.4. A Lyric Poet of the Imperial Period..... 8

1.5. Mesomedes’ Poems 9

1.6 The Historical and Religious Context 14

2. Proems, Hymns, Prayers: The Generic Forms of Mesomedes’ Poetry..... 18

2.1. Why Should We Read Mesomedes’ Hymns? 18

2.2. The Proems 19

2.3. The Proem and Hymn to Helios 21

2.4. The Hymn to Nemesis..... 24

2.5. The Hymn to Physis 28

2.6. The Hymn to Isis 30

2.7 The Poem to the Adriatic Sea (Adria) 33

2.8. The Hymns, the Proems and the Prayer to the Adriatic:
the Performative Context..... 35

3. Reception: Mesomedes’ Influence on the Poetry of Later Antiquity 39

3.1. A λυρικός between Earlier and Later Literary-religious Traditions 39

3.2. Mesomedes’ musicus: Musical Performances and the Tradition of Cithara Poems 46

4. Manuscript Tradition..... 54

4.1. The Codices 54

4.2. Some Remarks 55

4.3. A Note on the Two Translations (A. Villani/H.-G. Nesselrath) 56

5. Suggested Variations from Other Editions (Sara Lanna) 57

B. Text, Translations and Notes

Text (Sara Lanna) and Translation (Richard Gordon/Sara Lanna) 60

1a. To the Muse..... 60

1b. <To Calliope and Apollo> 60

2. Hymn to Helios 62

3. Hymn to Nemesis 64

4. To Physis..... 66

5. To Isis	68
6. To the Adriatic Sea	70
Notes on the Translations (Sara Lanna/Richard Gordon)	72

C. Essays

The Hymn: A Genre and its Development as a Mode of Expressing Religious Content (Sara Lanna)	121
--	-----

1. The Meaning of ὕμνος	121
2. Historical-religious Assumptions	123
3. Philosophical Influences and Abstract Concepts	125
4. The Typology of Hymns in the Hellenistic Period	129
5. Orphic Perspectives	131
6. The Typology of Hymns in the Imperial Period	134
7. A Case Study	142

Religious Developments in the Roman Empire, c.70–170 CE (Richard Gordon)	149
--	-----

1. Old Narratives	150
2. New Paradigms	154
3. Periodisation	156
4. Major Themes Reflected in Mesomedes' Hymns	159
5. The Religious Agency of Mesomedes' Hymns	171

Mesomedes and the Philosophical Zeitgeist (Oliver Schelske)	177
--	-----

1. Orphism and the Mystery Cults	179
2. (Neo)Pythagoreanism and Middle Platonism	190
2.1 Authors/Works	191
2.2 Literary Forms	193
2.3 Topics	195

The Recovery of Ancient Greek Music and the Contribution of Papyrology (Egert Pöhlmann)	197
---	-----

1. Introduction	197
2. The Beginnings: Vincenzo's Dialogo	198
3. Ancient Greek Notation according to Alypius	199
4. Fragments of Ancient Greek Music up to 2018	201
5. New Insights into the History of Greek Poetry and Music	202
6. The Relation of Melody and Prosody of the Poetic Text	202
7. Ancient Greek Hymns with Notation	204
8. Music on the Stage of the 5th and 4th c. BCE	207
9. Spoken Verse of Late Classical Tragic Texts Set to Music in the Imperial Period ..	210
10. The Prologue of an Orestes-Tragedy Set to Music in the Imperial Period	212
11. A Scene from the Medea of Carcinus Set to Music in the Imperial Period	214
12. Conclusion	216

A Mesomedes-Corpus of Late Antiquity with Musical Notation (Egert Pöhlman) 217

1. The Preserved Poems of Mesomedes..... 218

2. The Manuscript Tradition with Musical Notation..... 222

3. The Transmission without Musical Notation 224

4. The Musical, Metrical and Rhythmical Scholia to Mesomedes 225

5. Reconstructing the Creation of a Mesomedes Corpus in Late Antiquity 229

Mesomedes and the Music of the Imperial Period (Egert Pöhlmann) .. 233

1. Sources and Characteristics of Music in the Imperial Period 233

2. Musical Form 234

3. Mesomedes’ Metrics 235

4. Metrics of Clement of Alexandria and Synesius of Cyrene..... 237

5. The Trinitarian Monody (P.Oxy. 1786) with Supplements..... 239

6. Tonality 241

7. MEΛOI IOIIA 243

8. Conclusion..... 245

The Hymn of Mesomedes for Antinous (Inscription of Kourion, Mitford No. 104) (Egert Pöhlmann) 247

Mesomedes’ Other Hymns? Controversial Proposals.

Hymn to Attis (Heitsch no. 44,3) (Sara Lanna)..... 259

1. Text Proposals..... 259

2. The Indirect Tradition..... 261

3. The Cult of Attis 262

4. The Impossibility of Attributing the Hymn to Attis to Mesomedes 263

5. Divine Representation in the Hymn to Attis: Temporal Coordinates 266

D. Appendices

Bibliography

1. Abbreviations..... 275

2. Editions, Commentaries, Translations of Mesomedes 276

3. Articles and Monographs (and Editions of other Texts)..... 277

4. List of Illustrations 292

Indices (Maria Gkamou/Natalia Pedrique)

Source Index (selection) 293

General Index..... 301

About the Authors of this Volume 309