

Contents

Introduction

Karen Horn, Stefan Kolev, and Julian F. Müller

Liberal responses to populism — 3

Part I: Populism – Its Nature and Causes

Maximilian Priebe

Disappointing democracy? Individual liberty, popular rule, and the yearning for sovereignty — 13

Nils Hesse

Populists in the spiral of radicalization — 31

Roger Koppl

Populism, technocracy, and liberalism in zoological perspective — 47

Part II: Populism – Inside the Political Arena

Gerhard Wegner

The metamorphosis of liberalism: from an elite project to an ideology critique of democratic policy — 69

Aris Trantidis

Is populism a threat to liberal democracy? Democratic resilience, the radical right, and the neo-authoritarian agenda — 87

Fabian Wendt

How (not) to compromise: classical liberalism and the challenge of democratic party politics — 103

Part III: Populism – Seeking for Liberal Responses

Malte F. Dold and Tim Krieger

Market democracy, rising populism, and contemporary ordoliberalism — 119