

Contents

Acknowledgements — V

Conventions — XV

Introduction — 1

Why we speak of cinematic metaphor — 1

Cinematic metaphor in a TV News feature: TAGESSCHAU — 2

Starting from the media-character of audiovisual images — 6

Cinematic metaphor: basic theoretical assumptions — 6

Overview of the book — 7

Part I: Setting the Stage for Cinematic Metaphor

Introduction — 15

1 Cinematic Metaphor as Poiesis: The Movement-Image as Starting Point — 19

1.1 A Critique of Cognitive Analyses of Metaphors in Film — 19

The historicity of metaphorical meaning-making — 20

Audiovisual images as moving images — 20

Discourse dynamics of metaphor — 21

1.2 Metaphor and the Movement-Image:

DEATH AND THE MOTHER — 22

1.3 Critical Review of Cognitive Theories of Film Understanding — 29

1.4 The Alternative Proposal: Cinematic Metaphor as Poiesis of Film-Viewing — 33

A specific mode of perception — 34

Cinematic movement-image as media-aesthetic framing — 35

Film images create and express a shared reality — 36

The as-if — 37

Experiencing one thing in terms of another as a process of fictionalizing — 39

2	Cinematic Metaphor and Experience: Creating Fragile Realities — 40
2.1	From Metaphors as Cognitive Instruments to Metaphors as Experience — 40
2.2	Cinematic Metaphors as New Descriptions of Reality: REAR WINDOW (1) — 42
2.3	Cinematic Metaphors as Multidimensional Experiential Gestalts: REAR WINDOW (2) — 45
3	‘Doing’ Cinematic Metaphors: Perception, Feeling, and Affective Entanglement — 50
3.1	The Spectator-I — 51
3.2	Feeling as Unity of Experience — 52
3.3	Multi-Perspectival Perceiving: DER KRIEGER UND DIE KAISERIN — 53
3.4	Dynamics of the Metaphorical Process — 58
3.5	Film and Affect: Cinematic Expressive Movement — 59
4	Cinematic Metaphor and Embodiment — 60
4.1	The Intersubjective Dimension of Cinema — 60
4.2	Dynamic Versus Static — 62
4.3	Metaphor as Interaction and the Intersubjectivity of Meaning-Making — 63
4.4	The ‘Other I’ — 64 Cooperation — 64
4.5	The Spectator as Agent — 67
4.6	Multi-Perspectival Embodiment — 67
4.7	Embodiment in Neo-Phenomenological Film Theory and Conceptual Metaphor Theory — 68
5	Cinematic Metaphor as Commonly Shared Reality — 70
5.1	Reflexivity — 70 Fully embodied meaning — 71 Consciousness — 72 Lifeworld — 73
5.2	The Rhetorical Nature of Commonly Shared Reality — 74 Conceptual metaphor theory and Nietzsche’s theory of metaphor — 75 Historicity and awareness of time — 76
	Résumé — 78

Part II: Cinematic Experience and Audiovisual Figurativity

Introduction — 83

6 Experiencing Metaphoricity — 85

6.1 Feeling the Feeling: Embodied Metaphor in a Ballet Class — 85

6.2 Film-Viewing and Successive Metaphorization:

MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION — 91

The emerging sense of darkness — 93

Experiencing darkening as increasing desperation — 94

7 Audiovisual Figurativity Emerging from Cinematic Experience — 100

7.1 Feeling Losing and Winning: REPORT MAINZ (TV News Feature) — 101

7.2 Movement Experience and Metaphorical Process: SUSPICION — 104

7.3 Metonymies in Metaphorical Worlds: HER MORNING ELEGANCE (Music Video) — 110

7.4 Experiencing Transformations: ANGELA MERKEL (Campaign Commercial) — 115

Feeling the past, present, and future with the German Chancellor — 116

Merkel is 'WE': How the chancellor becomes part of the German people — 119

Résumé — 123

Part III: Cinematic Expressive Movement: Affectivity and Metaphor

Introduction — 129

8 Cinematic Expressive Movement and the Poetics of Affect: Three Examples — 131

8.1 Moving Spectators: LOLA RENNT — 131

8.2 Temporal Unfolding as Affect Modulation: BATAAN — 134

8.3 Being Touched by News? TAGESSCHAU (TV News Feature) — 139

8.4 Discussion — 143

- 9 Movement-Image: From Body Movement to Cinematic Expressivity — 146
  - 9.1 Hand Gestures as Expressive Movements — 146
  - 9.2 Interaffectivity and the Emergence of Metaphor in a Group Discussion — 148
  - 9.3 Historical and Theoretical Contexts of Expressive Movement — 154
    - Poetics of affect and the melodramatic mode of theater and film — 155
    - The modern concept of expression in film theory — 157
  - 9.4 Discussion — 162
- 10 The Affective Dimension: Expressive Movements and Cinematic Metaphor — 164
  - 10.1 Dynamic Forces and Static Structures: JEZEBEL — 164
    - An emerging metaphorical axis — 169
  - 10.2 Sand in the Gears of the Economic Cycle: TAGESSCHAU (TV News Feature) — 172
- Résumé — 178

Part IV: Temporality of Cinematic Metaphor: Intertwined Dynamics on Micro and Macro Levels

- Introduction — 183
- 11 Emerging Metaphorical Scenarios — 185
  - 11.1 Face-to-Face Interaction: Tango Lesson — 185
    - Experiencing balanced posture as spatial axis — 186
    - Experiencing balanced posture in walking — 187
  - 11.2 Audiovisual Perception: SAT1 NACHRICHTEN (TV News Feature) — 192
- 12 Intertwining Metaphorical Themes in a TV News Feature: REPORT MAINZ — 196
  - 12.1 Cinematic Expressive Movements as Temporal Macro-Structure — 196
  - 12.2 Cinematic Metaphor as Temporal Parcours — 197
    - The introduction — 198

A champagne reception —	199
The losing bankers —	201
The actual losers are the small investors —	202
12.3 Temporal Intertwining of Two Cinematic Metaphors —	204
13 Unfolding Metaphoric Themes in a Feature Film: SPELLBOUND —	207
13.1 How Non-Remembering Feels: A Cinematic Expressive Movement Unit —	209
13.2 The Unfolding Metaphorical Theme —	211
Non-remembering turns into remembering —	214
From non-remembering to remembering through metaphor shifting —	216
13.3 90-Minute-Metaphors? —	218
 Résumé —	221
 Beyond Cinematic Metaphor —	222
 Appendix: Cinematic Metaphor – A Methodological Outline —	226
A.0 Introduction —	227
A.1 Audiovisual media: eMAEX —	228
A.2 Multimodal face-to-face interaction: MGA and MFA —	228
A.3 The CinMet Procedure: Exemplary Analysis of a Film —	229
A.3.1 Hands-on Outline —	230
Macro Level (1) —	230
Micro Level (2) —	230
Meso Level (3) —	230
Macro Level (4) —	231
Macro Level: SPELLBOUND (1) —	231
Micro Level: SPELLBOUND (2) —	232
Meso Level: SPELLBOUND (3) —	233
Macro Level: SPELLBOUND (4) —	234
A.3.2 Zooming In: Three levels of audiovisual and multimodal communication analysis —	235
Micro Level: Expressive Movements —	236
BATAAN —	237
Face-to-Face Discussion —	238
Meso Level: Patterns and/or Scenarios —	240
REPORT MAINZ —	240
Dance class —	241

Macro Level: Metaphorical Themes — 244

REPORT MAINZ — 244

Dance Class — 245

A.4 Concluding remarks — 247

Bibliography — 249

Audiovisual Sources — 265

List of Figures — 266

Name Index — 270

Subject Index — 274

About the Authors — 277