

Articles

Jacob Olley	Resounding 1923: Musical Modernities from the Ottoman Empire to the Turkish Republic	5
Panagiotis C. Poulos	“Foreigners in their Homeland”: Song Writing, Musical Estrangement, and Subjecthood Formation in Late Ottoman Istanbul	51
Jacob Olley	Joking Aside: European Music and the Dislocation of Modernity in Nineteenth-Century Ottoman Satire	83
Burcu Yıldız	Transcultural Memory in the Study of Folk Music in Turkey: 78-rpm Records of the Ottoman American Diaspora	123
Onur Güneş Ayas	Self-Orientalist Representations of Turkish Classical Music in the Republican Era: Orientalism and Orientalism in Reverse	167
Evrin Hikmet Ögüt	Rauf Yekta’s Notes on the 1932 Congress of Arab Music: Being a Mediator in a Dual Musical Universe	209
Elif Damla Yavuz	Institutionalizing Opera in Turkey: Carl Ebert and the Opera Studio	243
Erol Köymen	Provincializing Acoustics, Feeling Europe: Heritage and Sonic Atmosphere in Istanbul	275

Martin Stokes

Afterword: Istanbul, Cairo, and the “Demography of Babel” 311
