

Contents

Eike Faber

Preface — VII

Part 1: The Discourse(s) of and on Corruption

Filippo Carlà-Uhink

Twisted Transfers as Corruption

A Model and Its Application to the Study of Cicero's Trial Speeches — 3

Cristina Rosillo-López

The Corrupted Speak

Insights into Conversations on Bribery in Late Republican Rome — 47

Shushma Malik

Civil War and the Corruption of liberalitas in Tacitus' Histories — 65

Irene Leonardis

Irreversible Corruption

Amputation Metaphors and the End of the Roman Republic — 83

Part 2: Corruption in Social Practice and Daily Life

Christopher Degelmann

Creating Evidence for Corruption

Plausibility Strategies in Athenian Democracy — 111

Patrick Sängler

Corruption in Greco-Roman Egypt

An Overview Based on the Papyri — 129

Emilia Mataix Ferrándiz

Ideas of Corruption in Roman Imperial Ports — 145

Marta García Morcillo

Suspect Inheritances

The Dark Business of Death in Ancient Rome — 167

VI — Contents

Maik Patzelt

Salvian and the Corrupted Church of Southern Gaul

How Avarice Endangers Episcopal Authority According to the Ad ecclesiam — 199

Part 3: The Politics and Diplomacy of Corruption

Yehudah Gershon

Corruption and Anti-Corruption

Refusing ‘Gifts’ during the Pyrrhic War — 223

Silvia Lacorte

Beyond Crime

Corruption and Its Discursive Use through the Case of M. Aemilius Scaurus — 257

Andrea Raggi

Usurpation of (and Corruption Involving) the Right of Roman Citizenship in the Republic — 287

Christian Rollinger

Balkan Promises

Sixth-Century Diplomacy and the ‘Corruption’ of the Justinianic State — 307

Index — 335