

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Note on Contributors.....	i
Acknowledgements.....	v

CHAPTER ONE:

Confronting Social Injustices: The Bob Marley's Jamaican Story and the Nigeria Dilemma

Uche Uwaezuoke Okonkwo

Introduction.....	1
-------------------	---

CHAPTER TWO:

Bob Marley, Pan-Africanism and Black Civilization

Ikenna Emmanuel Onwuegbuna

History and Etymology of Reggae.....	8
Growth and Spread of the Genre.....	15
Afrocentric Consciousness and Cultural Hybridization.....	21
Conclusion	25
References.....	29

CHAPTER THREE:
The Political Thought of Bob Marley and Peter Tosh,
1962-1987

Bernard Steiner Ifekwe

The Progenitors of Bob Marley and Peter Tosh.....	32
Their Thoughts on Slavery	36
Their Position on Human Rights.....	38
Pan-Africanism in Their Political Thought.....	43
Conclusion	46
References.....	47

CHAPTER FOUR:
The Jamaican Africanist: Bob Marley and Social Movements in Apartheid South Africa

Ugochukwu Ekemezie & Obinna U. Muoh

Anti-Apartheid Liberation Protest Songs and Musicians	52
Bob Marley and Pan-African Influence.....	54
His songs about South Africa and Government Response to them	56
Conclusion	61
References.....	63

CHAPTER FIVE:

Bob Marley, Language and Black Emancipation

Ngozi Anyachonkeya & Maureen Onyejegbu

Bob Marley's Language	73
Bob Marley, His Music, the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade and Black Emancipation	74
Bob Nasta Marley and Rastafarianism Faith	74
Bob Marley's Reaction to Imperialism and Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade.....	76
Bob Marley's Emancipation Mission of the Black Race	79
Marley's Perception of the Black People.....	79
Bob's Rejection of Ghetto Life.....	81
Linguistic Implicature of Bob Marley's Music and Songs	81
Implication of Findings	83
Conclusion	85
References.....	88

CHAPTER SIX:

Bad Governance in Africa: Re-Examination of Bob Marley's Music "Them Belly Full"

Chukwu, Lawson Onyema & John Mary Kelechi Ani

Conceptual Clarification	92
Theoretical Framework.....	93
Leadership Failure and Political Corruption In Africa	94
Bob Marley's "Them Belly Full, But We (Hungry)"	94
Neo-Colonialism and Political Corruption in Africa.....	99
References.....	104

CHAPTER SEVEN:

Religion and Mental Slavery in Nigeria: An Analysis of Bob Marley's "Redemption Song"

Chukwuebuka Kenneth Ugwu, Ngozika A. Obi-Ani

& Mathias Chukwudi Isiani

Methodology, data collection, and research design	110
Discussions and findings	111
An overview of Bob Marley's "Redemption Song"	111
Christianity and mental slavery in Nigeria	112
Islam and mental slavery in Nigeria	115
Conclusion	118
References.....	121

CHAPTER EIGHT:

One Message, Two Messengers: Appraising Black Pride and Emancipation Content in Fela Ransome Kuti & Bob Marley's Lyrics

Victor Ukaogo & Ogechi Cecilia Ukaogo

Conceptual Clarifications	127
Social Justice, Social Prophets and the Demographics of Justice	128
The Message, the Messengers and the 'Generation of Vipers'	129
Black Messengers, Black Pride and Emancipation.....	132
The Messenger's Message: the Sustainability Dilemma	133
Conclusion	134
References.....	135