

Contents

Acknowledgments 9

Introduction 11

1. Theoretical Positioning of Gender 19

 Problematizing the Category Sex/Gender 19

 Gender Performativity: Binaries and Norms 24

 Intersectionality: A Heuristic Approach 31

2. Education and Gender 45

 Education as an Institution: Cultural and Social Reproduction 45

 Social Reproduction Feminism and Education 64

 Gender and Education: A Moving Field 71

 Gender and the Curricula: The Case of Austria 76

3. Participatory Intergenerational Digital Storytelling 87

 Feminist Research Principles and Participatory Action Research (PAR) 87

 Digital Storytelling and the “Intergenerational Feminist Mic” 101

 Workshop Design: Coming Together as Feminist Practice 113

 Self-Reflexivity: Editing and the Power of the Researcher 137

4. Life-Narratives of Continuities and Change 145

 A Critical Narrative Analysis 145

Individual Stories and Social Conditions: Discontinuities as Lived Realities	151
Gendered Life-Stories and Motherhood as Political	160
5. Education in a Gendered Society: Reproduction and Resistance	167
Gender Differences and Similarities, or Simply Human?	167
Norms, Roles, and Stereotypes: Teaching to Transgress	171
Stillness and Progress: Beyond the Binaries and Towards Intersectionality	183
6. Social Reproduction and Education: An Ambivalent Nexus	193
Institutions and Individuals: Teaching Profession and Social Reproduction	193
Education: Progress and Production vs. Creativity and the Arts	202
Towards Inclusion: Societal and Structural Changes	209
Conclusion	221
Works Cited	227
Table of Figures	251