

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	7
Sabine Jesner / Matthew Neufeld
Introduction: Military Health Care and the Early Modern State, 1660–1830	9
Managing Military Healthcare
Anke Fischer-Kattner
Commissaire Ordonnateur Hocquard at the Siege of Philippsburg (1734): An Administrative Pivot of Military Medicine in Ancien-Régime Warfare	27
Matthew Neufeld
Corruption in the British Naval Healthcare Administration during the War of the Austrian Succession	53
Erin Elizabeth Spinney
The Women of Haslar and Plymouth: Washerwomen, Nurses, and the Work of Creating a Healing Medical Environment	75
Disease Management & Society
Sabine Jesner
Healthiness and Morality: Venereal Diseases and the Habsburg Army in the Late Eighteenth Century	93
Christian Promitzer / Marcel Chahrour
Blind Comrades: Medical Treatment of Trachoma Among the Habsburg Army in the Early Post-Napoleonic Years	111

Nebiha Guiga

Soldiers, Surgeons, Civilians, and the State: Formal and Informal Medical Care during the Napoleonic Wars 137

Modes of Professionalisation

Vojtěch Szajkó

The Professionalisation of Military Physicians in the Habsburg Monarchy,
Prussia, and the Ottoman Empire (1660–1830) 157

Brigitte Lohff

Competing Interests: The Medical-Surgical Education from 1775 to 1824
at the Josephinum in Vienna 183

Daniela Haarmann

Sick Horses and Lost Wars: On the Importance of the Development of a Modern Veterinary System for the Habsburg Monarchy
(ca. 1765–1830) 209

Abstracts [German] 229

Bibliography 237

Notes on the Contributors 257

Index of Names 261

Index of Subjects 263