

Contents

Part I Theme and Context

1	Ownership in Family Businesses	3
1.1	The Challenges of Ownership	3
1.2	The Family Shareholder in Science and Practice.	4
1.2.1	The Concentration of Economic Sciences on Stock Market Companies.	4
1.2.2	Research on Family Businesses and Their Families ...	5
1.2.3	The Demand for Professionalism.	6
1.2.4	Literature Offer	7
1.2.5	Continuing Education Opportunities	8
1.3	The Overall Framework of Duties, Rights, and Responsibilities	9
	References	10
2	The Concept of Family Businesses	11
2.1	Entrepreneurship	11
2.1.1	The Economist	11
2.1.2	The Venturer or Entrepreneur.	12
2.1.3	The Position of the Family Entrepreneur.	12
2.2	Goals of the Family and the Company.	12
2.3	The Family Business as the Basis of Family Wealth	14
2.3.1	Low Payout From High Asset Value	15
2.3.2	Advantages of Family Businesses Over Other Investment Forms.	16
2.4	Phases of the Family Business.	17
2.5	Mental Models for the Self-Understanding of the Entrepreneurial Family	19
2.6	Different Positions of the Shareholders	20
2.6.1	Differences in Perspective	20
2.6.2	Differences in Access to Knowledge	21
2.7	Differentiated Requirements for Shareholder Competence.	22
	References	24

3	Connection of Competence and Commitment	25
3.1	The Shareholder Competence	25
3.1.1	Aspects of Competence	26
3.1.2	Structuring of Shareholder Competence	26
3.1.3	Delegation	28
3.1.4	Meta-competence	28
3.2	The Commitment	29
3.2.1	Motivation through the Advantages of Participation	30
3.2.2	High Importance of Time and Discipline	30
3.2.3	Integration of Shareholder Tasks	31

Part II Structures

4	Structure of the Entrepreneurial Family	35
4.1	Access to the Owner Position	35
4.2	Order of the Duties and Rights of the Shareholders	37
4.2.1	Contracts	37
4.2.2	Family Protocol as an Addition to Contracts	38
4.3	Positioning of Shareholders in the Governance Structure	39
4.3.1	Operational Activity	41
4.3.2	Shareholders with a Mandate in Governance	42
4.3.3	Shareholders without a Mandate in Governance	42
4.4	Indirect Forms of Participation as an Additional Option	43
4.4.1	Design Variants	43
4.4.2	The Tribal Organization as a Legal Structure	44
4.4.3	The Option of the Family Foundation	45
	References	46
5	Structure of the Company	47
5.1	Articles of Association and Bylaws	47
5.2	Legal Structuring of the Company Setup	49
5.2.1	The Company's Top Unit	50
5.2.2	The Operational Legal Units	51
5.2.3	Shareholder Companies	51
5.3	Securing through Limitation of Liability	52
5.3.1	Protection of Owners from Company Obligations	52
5.3.2	Protecting the Company from Shareholders' Obligations	53
5.4	Securing the Financial Base	54
5.4.1	Protection Against Withdrawal and Termination	55
5.4.2	Pressure Potential of Shareholder Loans	56
5.4.3	Stock Corporation and Family Foundation as Non-Terminable Legal Forms	56
5.4.4	Share Sale within the Company	57

5.5	Securing the Influence of Shareholders	58
5.5.1	Measures for Demediatization	58
5.5.2	Cascades of Profit Distribution	59
5.5.3	Right to Information and Instruction	59
5.5.4	Securing Influence through Reservation of Rights to Appoint Executives.	60
5.5.5	Legal Constructions for Securing Shareholder Influence	61
5.6	The Design of Tax Optimization	62
5.6.1	Regulation of Inheritance Tax	63
5.6.2	Dealing with Compulsory Portion Under Inheritance Law	63
5.7	Design Options for Building a Corporate Group	64
5.7.1	Limitation of Liability within the Corporate Group ...	65
5.7.2	Avoidance of Publicity and Unwanted Transparency	65
5.7.3	Avoidance of Co-Determination	66
5.7.4	Administrability	66
5.8	The Design of the Governance Structure	67
5.8.1	Ensuring Leadership Without Family	68
5.8.2	Establishment of a Governance Institution	68
5.8.3	Institution with Advisory Function Advisory Board ...	69
5.8.4	Institution with Selected Supervisory and Control Tasks	69
5.8.5	Institution with All Permissible Supervisory and Control Tasks	70
5.8.6	Designing the Reporting to the Shareholders	70
5.8.7	Determining the Chairperson	71
5.8.8	Number and Classification of Advisory Board Mandates	72
5.8.9	Limitation of the Term of Office and Age of Board Members.	72
5.8.10	Further Regulations	73
	References	73
6	Structure of Secondary Wealth	75
6.1	Necessity of Secondary Wealth	76
6.1.1	The Core Business's Concentration Risk	76
6.1.2	Evaluation of Unlikely but Existential Risks	77
6.1.3	Establishing an External Emergency Reserve for a Company	77
6.2	The Secondary Wealth in the Founding Generation	79
6.3	Perspectives in the Multi-Generational Shareholder Group ...	81
6.4	The Design of Wealth Management	82
6.4.1	Placement of Secondary Wealth	82
6.4.2	Joint Asset Management without Mandatory Obligation	84

6.4.3	Family Office as an Organizational Concept	85
	References	85

Part III Processes

7	Processes of the Owner Family	89
7.1	Securing Decision-Making Capability	89
7.1.1	Willingness to Compromise	90
7.1.2	Voting or Coordinating?	90
7.2	Review of Structures	91
7.3	Promotion of Cohesion	92
7.3.1	Importance of Binding Forces	92
7.3.2	Material Binding Forces	92
7.3.3	Emotional Binding Forces	93
7.3.4	Trust as a Basis and Result of Bonding	94
7.3.5	Duties of Loyalty to Fellow Shareholders	95
7.3.6	Strengthening Loyalty	95
7.3.7	Control of Separation Forces	96
7.3.8	Incidents	97
7.3.9	Exit of Shareholders	98
7.4	Leadership of the Circle of Owners	99
7.5	Staffing of Positions in Governance Institutions	100
	References	102
8	Processes for Promoting the Company	103
8.1	Forms of Leadership	103
8.1.1	Patriarchal Leadership	104
8.1.2	Collegial Leadership	105
8.2	Leadership Dilemmas	106
8.3	Ensuring a Long-Term Orientation	107
8.4	Monitoring of Corporate Development	109
8.5	Review of Business Strategy	110
8.5.1	Is the Company's Financial Structure Stable?	111
8.5.2	Does the Business Model have a Long-Term Future?	112
8.5.3	How much Profit is Needed?	113
8.5.4	What is the Significance of Volume?	114
8.5.5	How much and where should the Company seek Growth?	114
8.5.6	How Much Diversification Does the Company Need?	115
8.6	Profit Allocation	116
8.6.1	Retention and Distribution	116
8.6.2	Balance between Retention and Distribution	118
8.6.3	Determining the Dividend Payout Ratio	119
	References	120

9	Processes for Developing Secondary Wealth	121
9.1	The Perspective on Total Wealth	121
9.1.1	Trustee and Investor Mentality	122
9.1.2	Investment Styles	123
9.1.3	Alignment of Asset Management	124
9.2	Creation of a Summary Statement of Total Wealth	125
9.3	Review of the Originating Company's Development	126
9.3.1	Monitoring the Value Development of the Family Business	126
9.3.2	Growth of the Company and Growth of the Number of Shareholders	127
9.4	Sources of Secondary Wealth	127
9.5	Weighting of Asset Shares	128
9.5.1	Share of Secondary Wealth	128
9.5.2	Formulation of Investment Objectives	128
9.5.3	Role of Financial Intermediaries	129
	References	130
10	Succession Processes	131
10.1	Objective and Importance of Succession	131
10.1.1	Orientation towards the Effects	132
10.1.2	Orientation Based on Experiences and Expectations	134
10.2	Different Interests in Succession	135
10.2.1	The Company's Perspective	135
10.2.2	The Perspective of the Outgoing Generation	136
10.2.3	The Perspective of the Succeeding Generation	136
10.3	Preparation of the Family and the Company	137
10.3.1	Preparation of the Company	137
10.3.2	Preparation of the Successor or the Next Generation	138
10.3.3	Preparation of the Predecessor	138
10.3.4	Preparation of the Circle of Owners	140
10.3.5	Preparation of the Owning Family	140
10.4	Ensuring Leadership Succession	141
10.4.1	Orientation towards Competence	141
10.4.2	Orientation towards Willingness	142
10.5	Ensuring Ownership Succession	142
10.5.1	Orientation towards Family-Internal Rules	142
10.5.2	Orientation towards Tax Regulations	143
	References	145

Part IV Practical Approach

11	The Development of an Individual Agenda	149
11.1	Basics of Professional Ownership Perception	149

11.2	Capturing the Current Situation—Where is the Family
	Business Today?	152
	11.2.1 Overview of the Overall Structure	152
	11.2.2 Overview of the Current Situation	154
11.3	How do we Assess the Current Situation?	157
11.4	What do we need to do Next?	159
11.5	Final Thoughts	160