

Table of Contents

FLORIAN GREINER, MICHAEL ZOK

Introduction: Liminality and the Circle of Life in Modern Societies 7

CHRISTOPH EGEN, CORNELIA WEISS, CHRISTOPH GUTENBRUNNER,
ANNE OSTERMANN

Social implications of Prenatal Diagnosis (PND) and Preimplantation Genetic Diagnosis (PGD). A sociological trial 19

WIEBKE LISNER

»Halted Blood« or Pregnancy? On the Liminal Perception of Life and Death between Biopolitics and Social Practice in Occupied
Western Poland, 1939 - 1945 35

MARINA BANTIOU

Ceausescu's abortion restriction and its implications for orphanages in communist Romania (1966-1989): A historical review 59

LUISA KLATTE

Population Planning and Gender Equality—Abortion in the GDR 81

MICHAEL ZOK

Neglecting Liminality? The Question of the Beginning of Life in Polish Post-war Discourses 99

THORSTEN BENKEL

Some Thoughts on Liminal States as Irritations of Knowledge 123

JULIA DORNHÖFER

Planning the Passage: How Living Wills Could Help Breaking the Death Taboo and Give Cultural Change a Nudge 145

ANNA BAUER

Organization and Agony. Transfigurations of Dying in Multi-Professional Palliative Care 169

Table of Contents

P. BOOPATHI
Dying with Dignity: Religious, Legal and Ethical Implications of the Euthanasia Debate in India 191

ERIC BENJAMIN FRANKLIN
A Meddle with Honour. The Legislation of the Contemporary Assisted Suicide Law at the Fin-de-Siècle. 215

Authors 233