

Table of Contents

Susanne Huber and Daniel Berndt

Introduction 7

Susanne Huber and Daniel Berndt

Radical Transformations or Well-balanced Transgression?
Beginnings and Prospects of a Queer Art History 19

Aleksandra Gajowy

Queer Decolonial Polishness? Polish Countryside, Folklore, and Queer Desire in Katarzyna Perlak's work 57

Rena Onat

Un-Archiving and Transhistorical Dialogues between Queers of Color in Aykan Safoğlu's Short Film
Kırık Beyaz Laleler (Off-White Tulips, 2013) 77

Barbara Paul in conversation with Fiona McGovern

Queering Art and Visual Culture Studies 97

Katrin Köppert

Postdigital Camp. Zach Blas' "Too-Muchness" 125

Renate Lorenz

Un_sharing (Park McArthur): Where to locate the queer entanglement of art with the political?—In experimenting with and practicing the un_sharing of the object* 145

Lucas Odahara

The Panther in the Queer Art History Department 181

A Conversation Between David J. Getsy and Daniel Berndt

Paradoxes of Queer Visibility 187

Ashkan Sepahvand
Translating Odarodle 211

Diyi Mergenthaler
Notes on Queer Chinese Art 237

“An active and ongoing commitment.”
Jennifer Doyle and Susanne Huber on Queer Interventions
Into the Discourse of Art 263

The Authors 279