

Contents

Abbreviations	9
Editorial Method	11
1. Preface	13
2. Introduction.....	15
3. Caught in the Crosscurrents: Luther and Calvin in Context.....	21
3.1 Luther and Calvin on Conscience	23
3.2 Law in Wittenberg and Libertinism in Geneva	26
3.3 Different though not Divided on the Lord's Supper	28
3.4 Charged with Heresy	32
3.5 The Christocentric Bridge from Luther to Calvin.....	35
3.6 Luther's Influence on Calvin's Doctrine of the Will.....	38
3.7 Conclusion	40
4. How the Reformers Interpreted and How to Interpret the Reformers	41
4.1 Issues with Reform	43
4.1.1 Attitude toward Aristotle.....	43
4.1.2 The Role of Reason.....	49
4.1.3 The Role of the Holy Spirit	59
4.1.4 The Role of Renaissance Humanism	61
4.2 How Do You Compare Luther and Calvin on the Will?	67
4.2.1 Method: A Hermeneutic of Historical Comparison	68
4.2.1.1 The Hermeneutic of Suspicion	68
4.2.1.2 The Hermeneutic of a Preponderance of the Evidence	73
4.3 How To Proceed: The Criteria of Historical Assessment	74
4.4 The Ecumenical Threat to Historiography.....	75
4.5 Conclusion	77
5. Reevaluating Calvin's Agreement with Luther's Doctrine of the Will.....	79
5.1 Calvin's Claim of Solidarity with Luther	80

- 5.2 Calvin’s Defense of Luther’s Necessitarian Argument..... 84
 - 5.3 Calvin’s Claim in Eternal Predestination with Respect to Luther..... 88
 - 5.3.1 Contingency, Free Choice, and Chance in Medieval Scholasticism 93
 - 5.3.1.1 Thomas Aquinas 94
 - 5.3.1.2 William Ockham and Gabriel Biel 96
 - 5.3.2 The Reformers’ Response to Medieval Contingency and Free Choice 101
 - 5.4 Conclusion..... 106
- 6. Responses to the Common Cause 107
 - 6.1 Kiven Choy 107
 - 6.2 Anthony Lane 112
 - 6.3 Conclusion..... 120
- 7. Were Luther and Calvin Necessarily Necessitarians? 123
 - 7.1 Harry McSorley on Necessity in Luther 123
 - 7.1.1 Two Kinds of Necessity in Medieval Theology..... 123
 - 7.1.2 Freedom in What is Below Humans..... 126
 - 7.2 Paul Helm on Necessity in Luther and Calvin..... 127
 - 7.3 Richard Muller on Necessity in Calvin 132
 - 7.4 Luther and Calvin on Divine Omnipotence 145
 - 7.5 Conclusion..... 148
- 8. Did Luther Influence Calvin on Necessity and Predestination?..... 149
 - 8.1 Choy Revisited..... 149
 - 8.2 Pastoral Concern and Rejecting “Free Choice” as a Term 150
 - 8.3 Necessity, Coercion, and Natural Freedom..... 160
 - 8.4 The Source of Calvin’s Distinction between Necessity and Coercion..... 166
 - 8.5 The Will as Beast of Burden Between God and the Devil 169
 - 8.6 “Flesh” Refers to the Whole Person under Sin 172
 - 8.7 Conclusion..... 175
- 9. Luther and Calvin on the Fall 177
 - 9.1 Necessity and the Fall 177
 - 9.2 Necessity and the Moral Value of Works 178
 - 9.3 Luther on Omnipotence and Calvin on Decree 186
 - 9.4 God’s Relationship to the Fall of Satan and Adam 188
 - 9.5 Does the Necessity of the Fall Make God Unjust? 192
 - 9.6 The First Sin Shows the Impotence of Free Choice 197

9.7	Conclusion	198
10.	Predestination and its Companions.....	199
10.1	Does God's Foreknowledge Impose Necessity in Predestination? ...	200
10.2	Luther's Two Kinds of Hiddenness.....	204
10.3	Calvin's Hidden God.....	210
10.4	Predestination and Reprobation	219
10.5	Nominalist Inscrutability.....	222
10.6	1 Timothy 2:4 and Limited Atonement.....	224
10.7	Luther Revisited: Lectures on Genesis	229
10.8	Luther and Calvin on Fate and Fatalism	232
10.9	Conclusion	235
11.	Is Augustine Totally Theirs?	237
11.1	The Development of Augustine's Doctrine of Grace	238
11.2	McSorley's Interpretation of Augustine's Doctrine of Freedom	240
11.3	McSorley and the Reformers.....	243
11.4	McSorley and the Scholarly Literature	246
11.5	Augustine and Irresistible Grace.....	249
11.6	Gerald Bonner on Calvin's Relationship to Augustine.....	253
11.7	Conclusion	254
12.	The Seven Spears of Pighius—Part One	257
12.1	The First Spear: Necessity Removes the Need to Work	257
12.2	The Second Spear: Necessity Removes Civil Justice	259
12.3	The Third Spear: Necessity Undermines Political Order	260
12.4	The Fourth Spear: Necessity Removes True Religion	262
12.4.1	Assurance	265
12.4.2	Humility	266
12.4.3	Honor.....	266
12.5	Conclusion	268
13.	The Seven Spears of Pighius—Part 2	269
13.1	The Fifth Spear: Necessity Makes God the Author of Sin	269
13.2	The Sixth Spear: Corruption of Nature Implies That Nature Is Evil	278
13.3	The Seventh Spear: God's Law Is Unjust if Man Cannot Obey	281
13.4	Conclusion	295
14.	Conclusion	297

Bibliography

305

Primary Sources

305

Translations.....

306

Secondary Sources

309

Indices

325

Person Index

325

Subject Index.....

329