

Content

Oliver Rathkolb

Introduction 9

Petra Ziegler | Andreas Schulz-Tomančok

Authoritarianism, Historical Perceptions and Democratic Dispositions in Austria, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Poland, and the United Kingdom: Methodology and Comparative Results of the 2019 and 2022 Online Surveys . . . 14

Oliver Rathkolb

The Long Shadow of Authoritarianism in Austria 97

Andreas Kranebitter

The Changing Disciples of Authoritarianism 110

Pavel Szobi

Prospects of Democracy in the Czech Republic 129

G. Daniel Cohen

Democratic Backsliding in France? Some Comments on the Data 134

Markus Roth

From COVID to Democratic Fatigue? Loss of Control and Approaches to Authoritarianism in Recent Germany in a Contemporary Historical Perspective 140

Manès Weisskircher

The Rise of the AfD During the Fourth Wave of Far-right Politics:
Putting the Case of Germany in an International Perspective . . . 152

Árpád von Klimó

What Democracy? Hungarian Public Opinion Twelve Years into Viktor Orbán's Authoritarian Regime 167

Marta Vukovic Susanna Bastaroli Sylvia Kritzinger
Reckoning with the Past: Victims, Heroes, or Perpetrators?
Italians' Perceptions of WWII History	178
 Bartosz Wieliński
Authoritarian Infection in Poland. A Recovery Report	196
 Misha Glenny
Interview Concerning Authoritarian Trends in Great Britain and the EU	209
 Othmar Karas
How to Reduce Authoritarian Trends in Europe?
Three Concrete Strategies for Stronger Liberal
Parliamentary Democracy	218
 Larry Diamond
Is US Democracy going to fail?	237
 Sherry Jueyu Wu
Group Participation, Localized Democracy,
and Authoritarianism	246
 Views from the Perspective of Writers
 Rita Czapka Sebastian Huber
“Democracy has a Future” – Views from the Perspective of Writers	259
 Jean-Baptiste Del Amo
The Pack	263
 Sabine Gruber
A Double Head	265
 Michal Hvorecký
The Last Day of the War	269
 Dorota Masłowska
We're good people	272

Terézia Mora
Essay on Mud	275
Kathrin Röggla
Winter Time	277
Antonio Scurati
Fascism and populism	281
Gerhild Steinbuch
Cover Boy	286
Tena Štivičič
Us	289
About the Authors	293