

1	Soccer Fandom: A Popular Research Topic	1
1.1	Fan Clubs as Identity-Forming Communities	5
1.2	Being a Fan as a Relational Concept	6
1.3	Fan Communities as Institutions	8
1.4	Diversity and Inclusion in Fan Communities	11
	References	16
2	The Role of Fans and Fan Clubs from a Management Perspective	19
2.1	Fans as an Economic Factor	20
2.2	Fans as a Psychological Factor	22
2.3	Fans as a Socio-political Factor	24
2.4	Fans as an Institutional Factor	26
2.5	Excursion: Fandom and Politics	29
	References	33
3	The Management of Sports Clubs as Stakeholder Management	37
3.1	Commercialization Between Pros and Cons	40

3.2	Sponsors and Other Funders: “Not Amused” About Fans and Their Activities	42
	References	46
4	Member Associations Under Pressure	49
4.1	Historical Review of the Development of Membership Associations	50
4.2	Membership Associations Today: Fundamentals and Forms	52
4.3	Excursion: Aggression in Soccer Stadiums—Problem or Solution?	54
	References	57
5	The Role of the Media in Soccer	59
5.1	Sports Journalism: Special Features and Self-Image	59
5.2	“Doing Diversity” in Soccer Reporting	61
5.3	Fans in Soccer News	63
	References	65
6	Structural Measures for the Integration of Fan Clubs in Member Clubs	67
6.1	Lines of Conflict Between Stakeholder Groups	67
6.2	Sports Clubs as Organizations of Complex Institutional Logics	69
6.3	Extended Model of Soccer Club Organization with the Involvement of Fans and Examples of Implementation	72
6.4	Expanded Model of Soccer Club Organization from the Perspective of Club Management	76
	References	79
7	Conclusion	81
	References	83