

111 Places

- 1___ 28–30 Pelham Street
Where J. M. Barrie learnt his craft | 10
- 2___ 32 Victoria Crescent
Where David met Frieda | 12
- 3___ 33 Castle Gate
Be thankful, my dear child, for all you have | 14
- 4___ Adams Building
Victorian extravaganza built for lace | 16
- 5___ Alabasters of Strelley
Exquisite alabaster carvings in a fine old church | 18
- 6___ Alan Sillitoe's Birthplace
'What I'm out for is a good time' – Arthur Seaton | 20
- 7___ The Angel Microbrewery
Real ale at one of the best pubs in Nottingham | 22
- 8___ The Arboretum
Nottingham's prettiest and most interesting park | 24
- 9___ Attenborough Reserve
Best birdwatching site in the region | 26
- 10___ Bendigo Thompson's Grave
Nottingham's answer to Muhammed Ali | 28
- 11___ Bennerley Viaduct
The longest wrought-iron viaduct in England | 30
- 12___ Bessie Sheppard Memorial
A brutal Georgian murder | 32
- 13___ Bestwood Colliery
When coal was king | 34
- 14___ Birds Bakery
Eat like the locals – pork pie anyone? | 36
- 15___ Birkin Building
From weaver to aristocrat in three generations | 38
- 16___ Boots the Chemist
Goose Gate start-up with a philanthropic edge | 40
- 17___ The Bottesford Witches
One earl, two children, three witches | 42
- 18___ Boulevard Works
Industrial architecture at its finest | 44

- 19___ Brian Clough Statue
He said he'd walked on the River Trent | 46
- 20___ Broadway Cinema
Comfortable seats and great films | 48
- 21___ Bromley House Library
A Georgian surprise | 50
- 22___ By Our Hands...
Nottingham's woodworking co-operative | 52
- 23___ Byron at Newstead Abbey
Where Byron dipped his quill | 54
- 24___ Castle Rock Brewery
Taste the beers of a local brewery | 56
- 25___ Castle Wharf
Canalside jauntiness | 58
- 26___ Chilwell Explosion Memorial
The blast was heard over 20 miles away | 60
- 27___ Chocolate Utopia
Mouth-watering handmade chocolates | 62
- 28___ City Ground
Can Nottingham Forest ever be champions again? | 64
- 29___ Clipstone Headstocks
Industrial architecture at its most imposing | 66
- 30___ Colston Bassett
Historic village with a fine country pub | 68
- 31___ Council House Lions
Left Lion time... | 70
- 32___ Cranmer's Mound
Aslockton: shadows of a martyred archbishop | 72
- 33___ Daily Express Building
Victorian building with literary connections | 74
- 34___ Danish Homestore
Danish design enhances everyday life | 76
- 35___ Edwin Starr's Grave
War – what is it good for? Absolutely nothing... | 78
- 36___ Felley Priory
Exquisite gardens and a lovely tea room | 80
- 37___ The Forest
A welcome splash of greenery in a busy city | 82
- 38___ Gallows Hill
Eerie Victorian graveyard | 84

- 39___ Gannets
Go on – nibble at the carrot cake | 86
- 40___ George Africanus' Grave
Nottingham's first black entrepreneur | 88
- 41___ George Brough Birthplace
Super-duper motorbikes | 90
- 42___ Green's Windmill
Buy your flour here | 92
- 43___ Hardwick Hall
A magnificent Elizabethan mansion | 94
- 44___ High Pavement
National Justice Museum at Shire Hall | 96
- 45___ Holme Pierrepont
Rowers aboy | 98
- 46___ Home Ales Building
A striking Art Deco structure | 100
- 47___ Ibuprofen Plaque
A hangover cure – and much more | 102
- 48___ Jamcafé
Funky European-style café-bar | 104
- 49___ Junction Fish Bar
Dangerous criminal apprehended | 106
- 50___ Kaye's Walk
Two Luddites; one pistol | 108
- 51___ Lace Market Theatre
A charming little venue | 110
- 52___ Langar Hall
A fine hotel and restaurant in a country setting | 112
- 53___ Luisa's Vegan Chocolates
Sweet and delicious treats | 114
- 54___ The Major Oak
Twang your longbow, Robin | 116
- 55___ The Malt Cross
A beautifully restored Victorian music hall | 118
- 56___ Meadow Lane
Notts County: the oldest football club? | 120
- 57___ Mortimer's Hole
The tunnels of Nottingham Castle | 122
- 58___ Murals at St Martin's
Beautiful murals, rediscovered and restored | 124

- 59___ Museum of Timekeeping
Watches and clocks galore | 126
- 60___ National Holocaust Centre
The Holocaust recalled and remembered | 128
- 61___ National Ice Centre
Where Torvill and Dean first sliced through ice | 130
- 62___ Newark Castle
Peaches or plums | 132
- 63___ New Art Exchange
Contemporary art gallery with a multicultural edge | 134
- 64___ New Castle House
A fine Art Deco building | 136
- 65___ Newdigate House
Handsome townhouse and classy restaurant | 138
- 66___ Newstead Abbey Gardens
A beguiling must-see for garden lovers | 140
- 67___ Newton Building
It's the cladding that counts | 142
- 68___ Nottingham Contemporary
One of the UK's best contemporary art galleries | 144
- 69___ Nottingham Playhouse
Theatrical home of Anish Kapoor's Sky Mirror | 146
- 70___ Nottingham Station
Attractive Edwardian railway station | 148
- 71___ Ossington Coffee Palace
Newark's temperance hidey-hole | 150
- 72___ Papplewick Pumping Station
The sandstone purifies the water | 152
- 73___ Park Estate & Park Tunnel
The tunnel that never worked | 154
- 74___ Paul Smith's First Shop
From bikes to stripes | 156
- 75___ Peggy's Skylight
Simply the best jazz club for miles around | 158
- 76___ Prudential Assurance
Perhaps Nottingham's finest Victorian building | 160
- 77___ The Queen's Chambers
Victorian flamboyance on the Market Square | 162
- 78___ Radcliffe Road
The world's first tarmac road | 164

- 79___ Radford Boulevard Clock
All that remains of Player's cigarette factory | 166
- 80___ Ratcliffe on Soar
A power station and a village church | 168
- 81___ Robin Hood Bronze
Statue of Nottingham's legendary hero | 170
- 82___ Rock City
Brilliant night club with great live acts | 172
- 83___ Rough Trade
Hurry here for the vinyl | 174
- 84___ Rufford Abbey Park
A ruined country house and a walk in the woods | 176
- 85___ Shipstone's Star Brewery
A long-gone pint of best bitter | 178
- 86___ Smalleys
An excellent gentleman's outfitters | 180
- 87___ Southwell Minster
One of England's most beautiful churches | 182
- 88___ Southwell Workhouse
UK's best-preserved workhouse | 184
- 89___ Stained-glass at the Pitcher & Piano
A tasteful modernisation | 186
- 90___ Standard Hill
'Charles Stuart, that man of blood' | 188
- 91___ St Barnabas Cathedral
Gothic revival delights by courtesy of Pugin | 190
- 92___ St Margaret's Church
In Owthorpe, he 'threw off his ashes' | 192
- 93___ St Mary and St Hardulph
Who did the Breedon carvings? It's a mystery... | 194
- 94___ St Mary Magdalene
Newark's Dance of Death | 196
- 95___ St Mary's Church
Nottingham's anti-slavery tombstone | 198
- 96___ Stonebridge City Farm
An award-winning City Farm | 200
- 97___ The Stone Monkey
Watson Fothergill primate holds the purse strings | 202
- 98___ St Stephen's Choir Stalls
Fancy, folkloric medieval carving | 204

- 99____ Theatre Royal
Nottingham's main concert hall | 206
- 100____ Tough Mary's Bakehouse
The best bread, cakes and croissants in town | 208
- 101____ Trent Bridge Cricket Ground
'A lotus land for batsmen,' said Neville Cardus | 210
- 102____ University of Nottingham
Art, architecture and archaeology | 212
- 103____ Warhammer World
Gamers' paradise – maybe even Valhalla | 214
- 104____ Watson Fothergill Offices
Gothic revival architecture at its best | 216
- 105____ Welbeck Abbey
Medieval abbey turned aristocratic estate | 218
- 106____ Wild Clothing
Great vintage clothing pick and mix | 220
- 107____ Wilford Suspension Bridge
The prettiest way to traverse the Trent | 222
- 108____ William Booth Halls
Salvation Army's local HQ | 224
- 109____ Wollaton Hall
Breath-taking in its invention | 226
- 110____ World War I Memorial
Nottingham High School honours its dead | 228
- 111____ Ye Olde Trip to Jerusalem
The oldest inn in the land – well maybe | 230