

Contents

Alberto Melloni / Federico Ruozzi / Francesca Cadeddu
A peste, fame, bello libera nos domine 7

Scriptural Paradigms

Mauro Belcastro
Prophecies of the Last Days in the New Testament and Apocrypha 15

Saverio Campanini
A Gloss on Contagion: Juan de Pineda Reads Francesco Zorzi 43

Historical Figures

Marie-Hélène Congourdeau
Do Plagues Come from God?: Dissident Voices in Byzantium 57

Andrea Tilatti
The Church and the Black Death 71

Maria Clara Rossi
Medieval Leprosaria 87

Matthieu Arnold
Evangelical Ethics and Preparing for Death: Luther’s Treatise Whether One May Flee from a Deadly Plague 99

Tommaso Calì
Devotions in Rome during the Cholera Epidemic of 1837 111

Carolin Hostert-Hack
The Spanish Flu and the Church 127

Scientific-Political Paradigms

Samuel Fernández
Origen’s Hermeneutic Approach to Disease 139

Antonella Straface
Faith and Wisdom, the Path to Healing: A Medieval Islamic View 153

Fabio Milana
Ivan Illich, Modernity’s Epidemiologist 165

Covid-19

Carlo De Angelo
Adaptation of Islamic Rules on Death Rituals to the Restrictions Imposed by Covid-19: The Jurisprudence of the European Council for Fatwas and Research 187

Katherine Marshall
Balancing Threats and Opportunities: Religious Communities Facing the Covid-19 Emergencies 203

List of Contributors 219

Index 221