

111 Places

- 1___ Abbeydale Industrial Hamlet
Small-scale industry from muscle and sweat | 10
- 2___ Abbeydale Miniature Railway
Where delightful journeying never takes you far | 12
- 3___ Alfred Denny Museum
*The fluorescent glow of *Chaetopterus variopedatus | 14
- 4___ Armandos Scooters
Vintage Lambrettas and Vespas posing like starlets | 16
- 5___ The Arctic Monkeys Room
Where the school kids from High Green practised | 18
- 6___ The Bear Pit
Where Victorian roisterers threw buns | 20
- 7___ Birdhouse Tea Company
The musical art of tea blending in Sidney Street | 22
- 8___ Bishop's House
The solid built yeoman's pad | 24
- 9___ Bobby's Lock-Up
Surveillance at a slower pace | 26
- 10___ Boot's Folly
A lonely tower in a wind-scoured field | 28
- 11___ Bragazzi's
Florentine deli with tractor stools | 30
- 12___ The Buffer Girls
At the filthy end of the metalworking process | 32
- 13___ The Cementation Furnace
At the birth of global steel-making | 34
- 14___ The Central Library
Sheffield's street-corner, Art Deco fanfare | 36
- 15___ Chantrey's Needle
The greatest portrait sculptor of his age | 38
- 16___ Cresswell Crags
It was 27,000 years ago today... | 40
- 17___ Cubana
Bringing over those Latino dance rhythms | 42
- 18___ The Curzon Cinema
Complete with tour of the bank vaults | 44

- 19___ The Cutlers' Hall
Where masters of industry strutted their stuff | 46
- 20___ The Cutting Edge
A sculptural greeting in steel and water | 48
- 21___ Dale Dyke Dam
The near hidden source of great tragedy | 50
- 22___ The David Mellor Factory
Sitting pretty inside a gasometer's footprint | 52
- 23___ Derek Dooley's Way
The bobby-dazzler with a foot in both camps | 54
- 24___ Derwent Bridge
Rescued from drowning stone by stone | 56
- 25___ The Dore Stone
Where England became a political entity | 58
- 26___ Ecclesall Woods
Neolithic rock art in ancient woodlands | 60
- 27___ Edward Carpenter
Gay activist and pioneering sandal-maker | 62
- 28___ Emergency Services Museum
Inside the notorious murderer's dank cell | 64
- 29___ Ernest Wright and Sons
Putter-togetherers for five generations | 66
- 30___ Forge Bakehouse
Conjuring the Peaks from a storm of flour | 68
- 31___ The Famous Sheffield Shop
The gleam and the glint of local metalware | 70
- 32___ Frog Walk
The gennel overlooking the ancient snuff mill | 72
- 33___ The Full Monty
Hot Stuff kicking up a storm | 74
- 34___ The General Cemetery
Locals out of love with the catacombs | 76
- 35___ The Golden Post Box
Honouring Jessica, history's greatest heptathlete | 78
- 36___ Granelli's
Sweets for the sucking since 1874 | 80
- 37___ The Graves Gallery
Jane Austen's great-uncle in a candyfloss wig | 82
- 38___ Heeley City Farm
The child-friendliest of inner-city farms | 84

- 39___ Helter-Skelter
A wild, helpless onrush, down and through... | 86
- 40___ Henderson's Relish
The black stuff that defines the city | 88
- 41___ Jameson's Tea Rooms
An entire eighth of a cake to die for | 90
- 42___ Jarvis' Hard Night
Mouthing off in public places | 92
- 43___ Jenkin Road
The steepest hill climb of the Tour de France | 94
- 44___ Kelham Island
Where old grit meets new shine | 96
- 45___ The Kelham Island Tavern
Pleasingly adrift on a foaming head of cask ale | 98
- 46___ The Lantern Theatre
A gift to a Soho-hungry daughter? | 100
- 47___ Laundry
Hair-styling to the odour of warm towels | 102
- 48___ The Leadmill
Musical excess on the beery dance floor | 104
- 49___ Legends of the Lane Museum
Troops watch the Blades thrash Chelsea | 106
- 50___ The Leopold Hotel
Joe Cocker once sang his heart out | 108
- 51___ Manor Lodge
Where Mary, Queen of Scots sewed and schemed | 110
- 52___ Marmadukes
Good food spiced with Sheffield wit | 112
- 53___ Museum of Gardening Tools
Meersbrook Park's Walled Garden Mess Room | 114
- 54___ Music in the Round
Flung headlong into music-making | 116
- 55___ The National Fairground Archive
The day Buffalo Bill thundered through Sheffield | 118
- 56___ Now Then
The no-nonsense of street art | 120
- 57___ The Old Queen's Head
Sheffield's most venerable, saggy hostelry | 122
- 58___ Our Cow Molly
Richest of ice creams from a herd of Friesians | 124

- 59___ Owlerton Stadium
Hurting greyhounds and daredevil riders | 126
- 60___ Paradise Square
Where the agitators once gathered | 128
- 61___ Park Hill
Reviving the utopian dream of collective living | 130
- 62___ Parkwood Springs
Sheffield flung out cinematically | 132
- 63___ The Peace Gardens
Picasso's doves squat on a chimney pot | 134
- 64___ Percy Riley Corner
Where the struggle of the miners is remembered | 136
- 65___ Portland Works
All the little mesters under one roof | 138
- 66___ Queen Cartimandua
Deal-maker with the Romans | 140
- 67___ Record Collector
Vintage vinyl never stops revolving | 142
- 68___ Redmires Training Camp
Where local boys prepared for the Somme | 144
- 69___ Ringinglow Roundhouse
Practising the art of snooping in every direction | 146
- 70___ The Rivelin Valley Trail
The beautiful afterlife of industry | 148
- 71___ The River Don Engine
The muscular force of steam power | 150
- 72___ Royal Exchange Buildings
Just a whiff of Amsterdam beside the River Don | 152
- 73___ Royal Victoria Station Hotel
Wilde, Pavlova and a chorus line of flappers | 154
- 74___ The Ruskin Collection
Handing beauty on to the working man | 156
- 75___ Sandygate
The oldest football ground in continuous use | 158
- 76___ Scaling the Norman Fort
Keeping the marauders at bay | 160
- 77___ Sewer Gas Destructor Lamp
Which flares up brightest at Christmas | 162
- 78___ Sharrow Vale Road
A most distinctively local shopping street | 164

- 79___ The Sheffield Assay Office
Where precious stuff gets bicycled in | 166
- 80___ Sheffield City Hall
Where John Lennon might have met Ziggy Stardust | 168
- 81___ The Sheffield Simplex
Bespoke luxury fit for the Romanovs | 170
- 82___ The Sheffield Tap
Idling luxuriousness beside Platform 1 | 172
- 83___ The Sheffield Year Knife
A bravura wonder in two thousand blades | 174
- 84___ Shepherd Wheel
Walking from city park to open countryside | 176
- 85___ The Showroom
The most versatile of indie cinemas | 178
- 86___ Skye Edge
The pigeon fanciers' paradise | 180
- 87___ Stanage Edge
The climbers grip on for dear life | 182
- 88___ Stanage Pole
An ancient waymarker in the wilderness | 184
- 89___ Stanley Cook's House
A poet's window on a strangely familiar world | 186
- 90___ St Marie's Cathedral
Pugin's exquisite gift to Sheffield | 188
- 91___ St Paul's, Parson Cross
By the architect of Coventry Cathedral | 190
- 92___ The Steelworker
Hard-bitten, with tight muffler at neck | 192
- 93___ Strip the Willow
Everything comes in for something | 194
- 94___ Tamper: Sellers Wheel
A Kiwi coffee shop wings in from the Pacific | 196
- 95___ The Thryft House Yew Tree
Older than Magna Carta | 198
- 96___ Tinsley Canal Walk
Nature's quietly determined fightback | 200
- 97___ Two Steps to Heaven
The gentle art of eating fish and chips | 202
- 98___ Turner Museum of Glass
Cinderella locked in a Sheffield cabinet | 204

- 99___ Upper Chapel Forecourt
Quietly reflecting upon popular dissent | 206
- 100___ Upper Wincobank Chapel
A modest slice of New England piety | 208
- 101___ Vulcan
Sheffield's forge-master general | 210
- 102___ Walking Man
How a gait can define a character | 212
- 103___ The Wantley Dragon
The mythical creature with fourteen eyes | 214
- 104___ Weston Park Weather Station
Utterly dependable, rain, sleet or shine | 216
- 105___ The Wicker Arches
The honey glow of stone from Wharnccliffe Craggs | 218
- 106___ Wincobank Hill
The cleansing of ancient ground | 220
- 107___ The Winter Garden
Tropical vegetation in the inner city | 222
- 108___ Wisewood Cemetery
The death of a Leppard | 224
- 109___ Wortley Hall
Welcome to the workers' stately home | 226
- 110___ Wyming Brook
Sheffield's miniature Alpine interlude | 228
- 111___ The Zion Graveyard
Mary Anne Rawson's Resting Place | 230