

Contents

Educational Situation(s) of Sinti and Roma in the German Education System . . . . .	1
Karin Cudak and Iulius Rostas
Antigypsyism and Educational History . . . . .	65
Frank Reuter
“... but this fear, which was in you, you pass on to your child, with the mother’s milk” . . . . .	91
Joanna Talewicz-Kwiatkowska and Małgorzata Kołaczek
The Importance of Different Living Conditions of Sinti and Roma for Strategies to Improve the Educational Situation. . . . . .	117
Albert Scherr
Romnja in the Struggle for their Voice . . . . .	141
Nicoleta Bițu
The Educational Situation of Sinti and Roma in Germany in International Comparison . . . . .	155
Christian Brüggemann
Conceptual Literacy in Spoken Language—the Standard Language in Romanes. . . . . .	187
David Strauß
School - for Sinti* and Roma* a Place that Costs Strength . . . . .	207
Sara Paßquali

---

ReFIT - Social Participation through Participatory Approaches and Examples of Antiziganism as an Educational Barrier from Practice . . . . .	223
Jovica Arvanitelli, Christine Bast and Andreas Hoffmann-Richter
The Hildegard Lagrenne Foundation: Perspectives and Strategies for Equal Educational Participation of Roma and Sinti in Germany and Examples from the Practice of Madhouse gGmbH Munich . . . . .	233
Alexander Diepold and Christoph Leucht
Method Report on the Study . . . . .	257
Christoph Leucht and Sebastian Starystach	