

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	V
Dominik Höink and Andreas Meyer
Music and Religions in the 21st Century – Introduction	1
Isabel Laack
Music and Religions in the 21st Century. Perspectives from the Cultural Study of Religion	7
Antje Tumat
Weltethos and wunderzaichen: Religion in the Music of the Western Avant-garde	27
Luise Adler
Searching for Traces of the Work of the Holy Spirit: Interview with Mark Andre	73
Matthias Geuting
Sacred and Secular References in Recent Organ Music	83
Dominik Höink
The Topicality and Diversity of a Religious Genre. German Oratorios in the 21st Century	103
Andreas Jacob
Studying “Popular Church Music”: The Example of North Rhine-Westphalia	135

Maria Giangkitseri
Music and Female Monasticism in the 21st century in Northern Greece: An Ethnographic Approach	153
Andreas Meyer
“How Can a Christian Simply Sing this Song?” Funeral Music, Dances and the Churches in Asante (Ghana)	175
Tobias Winnen
Encounter with an Ullambana Ceremony in Sūzhōu, China	203
Christiane Strothmann
“Tropur” – Insights Into a Protection Ritual of the Tibetan Bön Tradition	231
Matthias Lewy
Music and Animism in the Museum – Reflections on the Mediation and Translation of Amazonian Sound Concepts	271
Banu Senay
Sounds on the Line: Music and Calligraphy as Companiable Islamic Arts	303
About the Authors	329