

Table of Contents

A note	xi
On Hirschman	1
1 Three points on possibilism Luca Meldolesi	3
2 My interview with Albert Hirschman Marta Petrusiewicz	9
3 Unexpected linkages and social energy in collective action Elizabeth Jelin	13
4 On teaching Hirschman Philipp Lepenies	21
5 Uncertainty as an opportunity Oswaldo Néstor Feinstein	27

6	Exit, Voice, and Loyalty in the history of economics Richard Adelstein	37
7	Hirschman's critique of the economics profession Ilene Grabel	41
8	On the applicability of Albert Hirschman's Shifting Involvements for the historian Charles S. Maier	47
9	Marxism, imperialism, and the future of undeveloped societies: From expected to unintended consequences Baruch Knei-Paz	55
10	The context of Otto Albert's politicization Christian Fleck	65
11	Hirschman, Geertz, and my experience Robert Darnton	73
	From Hirschman	77
	Managers and Entrepreneurs	79
12	Hirschman's legacy in dealing with the private sector Vincenzo Marino	81
13	Possibilism as a cornerstone of consultancy Francesco Messina	91
14	Providing innovation to the South Francesco Cicone and Gennaro di Cello	101
15	Hirschman's theory in business management practice Renato Bruno	107
16	"Regional Entrepreneurial Transformation Process" in Lusatia—a Hirschmanian approach to socio-economic transformations? Hans Rüdiger Lange	113

Development	119
17 The Abraham Path: Economic development across fragile communities in the West Bank Marinella Ariano	121
18 Reflections of a sanitarian Laura Orlando	125
19 Sustaining success? Voice and accountable discretion in Bangalore's Water for the Poor Program, 10 years later Meenu Tewari	133
20 Capacity-building for development projects: Efficiency plus generosity Paolo Di Nola	147
21 Evaluation for local development Laura Tagle	155
22 Social learning and the World Bank Tom Kenyon and Alberto Criscuolo	161
23 Implementation (and reform) really is "a long voyage of discovery" Michael Woolcock	169
Around the World	181
24 Intersecting exit, voice, and loyalty: Feedback from Nigeria Lesley Amede Obiora	183
25 Inequality and the inventiveness of history: Albert Hirschman's "tunnel effect" in South Africa Brian Levy	191
26 How the rhetoric of reaction justifies the legalized exploitation of migrant care labor Marianne Egger De Campo	201

27	Reactionary and progressive rhetoric in post-communist transformation: A note on translating Hirschman's ideas into a different context Marek Skovajsa	211
	Index of Names	221