

Table of Contents

Thorsten Bonacker

Introduction: Securitization, politicization, differentiation 7

Bringing social differentiation into securitization studies

Andreas Langenohl

Securing functional differentiation: Financial markets as critical infrastructures 33

Jochen Kleinschmidt and Stephan Stetter

Macrosecuritization without militarization? Hemispheric threat narratives and differentiation conflicts in the Americas 55

Philipp Lottholz

Reclaiming security? Functional differentiation (and drawbacks) of civil society actors and state structures in Kyrgyzstan 87

Felix Weiß

(De)Securitization of the liberum ius ad bellum in the founding years of the League of Nations 115

Politicization and securitization

Erik Swart

Securitization and political communication in early modern times: A case study on the religious question in the Netherlands, ca. 1566–ca. 1609 133

Table of Contents

Cornel Zwierlein

Between protection by international law and credit networks: The security strategies of European merchants in the Levant around 1700 153

Maria Ketzmerick-Calandrino

The politicization of security and postcolonial research:
Contestations of security visions in the Cameroonian decolonization process 191

Thorsten Bonacker

Constitutive desecuritization and foundational politics in internationalized postcolonial independence 217

Andrew W. Neal

NATO accession, democratization, and security sector reform (1989–2004): The role of reflexivity and historico-geopolitical positionality 247

Contributing authors 271