

Contents

PREFACE	9
---------------	---

CONVERSATION WITH EDITOR MOLLY MALENE STENSGAARD	13
---	----

About Genre, Acting, Beauty, and Death.....	13
Paintings as References. Storytelling, Expectations, and Emotions.....	14
Symbolism and the Longing for Nature.
Cultural Memory and the Literature by Marcel Proust	16
Troubled Souls and Female Sexuality	18
Editing the Images and the Music of the Overture of Melancholia . About Tristan and Isolde	19
About the Press Conference in Cannes, Exploring Evil, and the Director's Name as a Label	22
About Drastic Scenes and Editing Nymphomaniac	24
Compassion: The Image of the Carving Boy.
The Burning Tree and the Catastrophe.....	25
Living under Modern World Norms and Circumstances.
Longing and Promiscuity	26
About Lars, Actors and Actresses, and Peter Hjorth	28

CONVERSATION WITH CINEMATOGRAPHER MANUEL ALBERTO CLARO	29
---	----

Still Photography, Art, and Portrait.
The Danish Film School, Cinematographers and Directors	29
Awards, the Beauty of Melancholia , Living Paintings, and the Ugliness of Nymphomaniac	32
The Loving Eye and Taste. Framing and Pointing.
Working with Lars and the Actors	33
Cinematography and Special Effects. Butterflies and Ophelia.
Wagner Moments.....	35
Magnetism of Faces and Actors. Spaces and Light. Intuition and Control ..	38
Equipment. Daylight and Artificial Light.
Focal Length, Depth of Field, and Lens Speed.....	40
Colors and Their Impact on Feelings and Emotions	41

The Contrast of Beauty and Agony, of Inside and Outside.
The Burning Tree..... 43
The Iconic Image of the Mother with the Child and Artificiality 45
Symbolism: The St. Elmo’s Fire and the Garden.
Tradition, Inspiration, and Homage..... 46
New Genres within Cinema, Exploring Storytelling, and the Aesthetics of Cinema..... 48
The Collective Memory. The Press Conference in Cannes,
Fascination with Evil and Self-Righteousness..... 51
Feelings and Emotions 53
Immersive Media, Cinema, and Gaming..... 55

CONVERSATION WITH SPECIAL EFFECTS SUPERVISOR
PETER HJORTH..... 57

Working with Special Effects, Multiple Cameras, Randomness, and Non-Linear Perspectives 57
Visual Effects Supervision and Communication.
Style and Conceptualization 60
Rules of the Game, Framework, and Creating a System.
Abstraction and the 180-Degree Rule 61
About Meeting Lars von Trier and Working Processes.
Automavision. Slow-Motion Sequences..... 64
About the Special Effects Department, First and Second Unit, and the Editing Process..... 66
Storytelling, Music, and the Direct Look into the Camera Lens..... 69
Böcklin’s Garden and The Hunters in the Snow. About Mannerism,
Eclecticism, and Conventions 70
Bodies and Movement in Space. Simulation and Symbolism..... 71
The Aesthetics of Beauty. Paintings on the Screen 74
The Telescope and Butterflies. About Mutual Trust 76
The Last Scene of Melancholia.
Remembering, Dreaming, and Cinematic Experience..... 77
Artificial Intelligence, the Press Conference in Cannes,
Social Media, and Bruno Ganz..... 79
The Director’s Cut of Nymphomaniac, Delacroix,
and the Ending of The House That Jack Built 81

CONVERSATION WITH WRITER AND DIRECTOR LARS VON TRIER.....	83
About Directors and Their Crew, the Beginnings of Filmmaking, and Film as a Field of Experimentation	83
About Actors, Charlotte Gainsbourg and Kirsten Dunst.....	85
Exploring the Medium and Perception. The Time Cut and the Freedom of Montage and Directing	86
On Genre and Style. About Andrei Tarkovsky	88
About Melancholia , Tristan and Isolde , and Marcel Proust.....	89
Wagner’s Influence and Memories of Bayreuth	91
Slow-Motion and Music. Antonioni’s The Night	92
Thoughts and Feelings of Our Time. Anxieties and Longings.....	94
About Screenwriting and Writing Melancholia . On the Relationship of the Atheist to God.....	95
Thoughts on Wisdom and Fear, Life and Death. Nature and Fate	96
On Dramaturgy and Breaking Traditional Rules, Ibsen versus Strindberg. Memories of Bruno Ganz.....	97
About Drastic Scenes and Censorship. The Press Conference of Melancholia in Cannes.....	100
Fascination with Evil and Moral Self-Righteousness	103
Humor, Manipulation, and Mastering Magic Tricks	104
Cinema in the Age of Social Media and Artificial Intelligence. Provocation and Evocation.....	105
Mannerist Bodies as an Expression of the Crisis of Faith.....	107
About Practice and Theory, Art and Science. ‘Love Your Darlings!’.....	108
 ABOUT THE CONVERSATION PARTNERS	 111