

Table of Contents

Introduction

Volker Depkat, Karsten Fitz, and Susanne Lachenicht
Representations and Uses of the American Revolution in Past and Present: An Introduction..... 1

Sarah M. S. Pearsall
Remembering Revolution..... 19

Historiographical Narratives

Bertrand Van Ruymbeke
“La plus grande et la plus importante des révolutions”:
French Contemporaneous Writings on British America and the American Revolution, 1750s-1790s 37

Csaba Lévai
Interpretations of the American Revolution in Hungary during the Socialist Regime, 1949-1989..... 53

Revolutions, Independence, and Political Exiles

Susanne Lachenicht
Zeitgeschichte and Zeitschriftsteller: German “Ultraliberals” and the American Revolution, 1776-1830s..... 73

Mischa Honeck
Reviving a Revolutionary: The German-Americanization of Thomas Paine after 1848 87

Alessandro Bonvini and Michele Magri
The American Revolution and the Risorgimento: Views from the Republican Diaspora in the United States, 1835-1860 103

Loyalists and Conservatives

Jannik Keindorf
Loyalist Solidarities: The Reception of Refugees from the American Revolution in Jamaica..... 133

Alexander Kruska
“As gently as the ripe apple falls from the tree”:
Political Rule, Rightful Government, and the Founding of the American Republic in Prussian Old-Conservatism 153

Annabelle Meier
An Aspirational ‘Quiet’ Revolution: Why Wilhelmine Liberals
Favored the American Model..... 193

The American Revolution and Cultural Production

Visual Memories of the American Revolution

Mark Thistlethwaite
The American Revolution’s Evolving Visual Imagery in the Twenty-First Century, So Far..... 215

Erika Piola
Creating The Watchman’s Cry: A Spectrum of Diversity in an Historical Popular Print 237

Thomas Giese
Reframing Leutze: Washington Crossing the Delaware in the Contemporaneous Context 255

Staging, Singing, and Dancing the American Revolution

Nassim W. Balestrini
Staging the American Revolution: Dramatic Genres and/as Political Discourse 277

Vanessa Vollmann
Reimagining Milestones: Myths of the American Revolution
vs. Female Voices in the Blockbuster Broadway Musical Hamilton..... 303

Notes on Contributors 329