

Contents

Preface to the English Edition	7
Preface	9
Acknowledgments	11
Note on Spelling and List of Abbreviations	13
Introduction	15
Chapter 1. Source base and the state of academic research on the topic .	19
1.1. Source material of the research	19
1.2. Examination of the processes of the Austro-Hungarian armed forces formation in historiography	30
Chapter 2. The influence of the peculiarities of the Austro-Hungarian state system and its ethnic composition on the formation of the armed forces	45
2.1. The main features of the Habsburg Empire as a state at the final stage of its existence (1867–1918)	45
2.2. The reflection of the ethnic and confessional diversity of the Habsburg monarchy within its armed forces	49
2.3. State-wide military policy at the macro level: the Kingdom of Galicia and Lodomeria	55
Chapter 3. Evolution of the armed forces' manning system	61
3.1. Historical experience of manning the armed forces in the Habsburg Empire	61
3.2. The introduction of universal conscription as a component of the formation of a dualistic state	68

3.3. Local peculiarities of military service in Austria-Hungary	90
Chapter 4. Functioning and evolution of the mobilization system	103
4.1. Administrative aspects of military training	103
4.2. The secret component of the mobilization system and the implementation of mobilization	119
Chapter 5. The problem of conscription in the social and political life of Austria-Hungary	135
5.1. Assessment of the effectiveness of military legislation in Austria-Hungary	135
5.2. State-wide military policy at the micro level: factors of influence of conscription on the lives of ordinary citizens	145
5.3. Features of the social portrait of military personnel	164
Conclusions	173
Abstracts	179
List of sources and references	183
Annex A: Charts and Graphs	221
Annex B: Illustrations	255
Annex C: Texts	277
Index	281