

Contents

ALI BEHDAD
Foreword	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction	i
CHAPTER 1
Travel Studies, Postcolonialism, and the Moroccan Historical Context	21
CHAPTER 2
The National(ist) Rhetoric in British Travel Writing on Morocco	61
CHAPTER 3
Signs of Native Resistance, Gender, and the Secular in British Travel Writing on Morocco	101
CHAPTER 4
Tangier (Un)bound: The Interplay between the National Color and the International(ist) Rhetoric	161

CHAPTER 5

The Interplay between the Imperial and the National(ist)
Rhetoric in Edith Wharton's In Morocco

207

Conclusion

261

Bibliography

267

Index

277