

Content

„Acknowledgment of Country“

- 4 Foreword from the Wanjina Wunggurr Aboriginal Corporations
- 6 Welcoming Message from the Cultural Foundation of Hesse
(Eva Claudia Scholtz)
- 8 Director's Foreword (Mona B. Suhrbier)
- 10 Introduction. Looking Back Together (Matthias Claudius Hofmann and Richard Kuba)
- 28 An Eighty Year Relationship (Richard Kuba)
- 54 The Country Owns Us. We Follow the Rules of Wanjina and Wunggurr (Prepared by Kim Doohan with Rona Gungnunda Charles, Matthew Martin, Lloyd Nulgit, Pete O'Connor and Leah Umbagai)
- 74 The Archaeological Perspective. Rock Art in the Kimberley, Northwest Australia (Martin Porr)
- 88 When the Dreaming Becomes a Nightmare. The Long, Dark Shadows of Colonial Invasion in the Northern Kimberley (Anthony Redmond)
- 104 Turning Points. Australia in the History of the Weltkulturen Museum (Eva Ch. Raabe)
- 120 Celebrated and Lost. The Remains of a Collection from Northwest Australia (Matthias Claudius Hofmann)

146	Andreas and Katharina Lommel as Researchers in the Kimberley (Michaela Appel)
162	The Recordings of the “Frankfurter Expedition W-Australien“ (Sally Treloyn)
180	“Rubbish” Painting. Impressions of Site-Focused Archival Research with Ngarinyin Traditional Owners on their Country (Christina Henneke in collaboration with Rona Gungnunda Charles and John Rastus)
196	Bringing It Back to Life. The Re-Creation of the Bulamana Junba (Group discussion with Rona Gungnunda Charles, Lloyd Nulgit, Pete O’Connor and Leah Umbagai, edited by Christina Henneke and Isabel Kreuder)
206	A Message (Stick) to Frankfurt. “We Are Here, Our Stories Are Still Alive!” (Kim Doohan with Rona Gungnunda Charles, Lloyd Nulgit and Leah Umbagai)
224	Exhibition Views
248	Timeline
250	Glossary of Indigenous Concepts
252	Authors
254	Colophon