

Contents

Ralf Hoppadietz and Karin Reichenbach

- 7 Introduction: Staging the Pagan Past
Ethnicist History Conceptions and Popular Culture in Central Europe

I Perspectives from Germany

Ralf Hoppadietz

- 13 Of Gods and Ancestors
Historical Reenactment and the Long Shadow of Neo-Germanic Paganism

Niels Penke

- 38 Popular Pagans
Germanic Culture and Mythology
in (Heavy) Metal

Hermann Ritter

- 47 Speculative Stories
Entanglements in the Web of Conspiracy Theories, Speculative Fiction, Fantasy Role-Playing, Paganism and Right-Wing Extremism

Anna-Lena Heckel and Heike Sahm

- 59 Newly Told Stories
On the Topicality of the Myth of the Germanic Peoples in Children's and Young Adult Books

Hannes Buchmann and Julius Roch

- 71 Connections and References Between the German Alt-right's Views of Prehistory and Its Ideology
Based on the Example of the Institut für Staatspolitik

2 Perspectives from Poland

Philipp Schaab

- 85
- Christianisation as Trauma
Aspects of Ethnonationalist Identity Construction Amongst Slavic Neopagan Groups in Poland

Mariusz Filip

- 93
- Transformation as Repetition
Historicity Among the Pagan Right in Poland

Karin Reichenbach

- 108
- Performing Paganism
Popular History Practices as Doing Metapolitics in Poland

Michał Pawleta

- 121
- The Restaged Past Is a “Dirty Business”
The Politicisation of Historical Reenactment in Present-Day Poland

Ryan Buesnel

- 133
- Eastern Hate
Antisemitism and the Development of Polish Black Metal

3 Perspectives from Hungary

Katrin Kremmler

- 145
- “Eurasian Magyars”
The Role of Historical Reenactment and Experimental Archaeology in Hungary’s Illiberal Heritage Regime

Áron Szele

- 159
- Mythological Ancestry in Hungarian Rock

Appendix

- 171
- Contributors
- 173
- Figure Credits