
Contents

1	Welcome: What You Can Take Away from This Book	1
Part I Prepare Optimally for Your Science Pitch
2	The Crucial Difference Between Publication and Presentation	5
	References	6
3	The First Elevator Pitch in History	9
	References	11
4	From Elevator Pitch to Science Pitch	13
	References	18
5	Networking Events: From Clear Targets to Strong Connections	19
	Reference	22
6	Get to Know Your Audience in Advance	23
6.1	How to Provide Tangible Added Value	24
6.2	Real-Life Example: Networking at Science Conferences	25
6.3	Real-Life Example: Confident at Eye Level in Job Interviews	26
7	Typical Pitfalls in Science Pitches	29
7.1	Inject Personality and Passion	30
7.2	Address Only the Most Important Content and Ensure Clear Structure	32

7.3	Language Style and How to Present Convincingly	33
7.4	Think Outside the Box	36
	References	39
8	Integrate Artificial Intelligence (AI) Tools Like ChatGPT	41
8.1	Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Science	42
8.2	Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Practice	42
	References	46
9	Present Your Slides with Power and to the Point	49
9.1	Less Is More: Just One Piece of Information per Slide	50
9.2	Essentials Instead of Text-Heavy Data Trash: Get Rid of Bullet Points!	52
9.3	Visualize the Story Behind Your Statistics	54
	References	56
10	Prepare Your Setting Professionally	57
10.1	Optimum Stage Presence for Your Live Talk	58
10.2	Your Virtual Business Card: An Awesome Online Presence	60
10.3	Get in the Right Mood for Your Presentation	62
 Part II Science Pitch: How to Add ESPRIT to Your Project
11	The Meaning of ESPRIT	67
	Reference	68
12	Expertise: Combine Innovation and Personality	69
12.1	Highlight Your Professional Expertise	70
12.2	You Convince with Sound Data and Reliable Facts	72
12.3	Publications and Patents Are Your Solid Assets	74
	References	75

13	Storyline: How to Guide Your Audience with a Science Pitch	77
13.1	Vision: A Purposeful Look into the Future	78
13.2	Mission: Turn Your Vision into Reality	80
13.3	Problem and Solution Approach: Milestones in Your Research Project	81
13.4	Values: The Foundation of Your Daily Actions	82
13.5	Create Aha Moments for Impactful Messages	85
13.6	Storytelling with Randy Olson's Narrative Spectrum	86
13.7	Storytelling with Emma Coats' Pixar Pitch	89
13.8	Tell the Story Behind Your Data, Facts and Figures	89
	References	92
14	Performance: Your Compelling Stage Presence with Character	95
14.1	Stage Yourself: Your Stage Presence Is Your Gamechanger	96
14.2	Authenticity Counts More Than Perfection	97
14.3	Expertise and Passion: A Powerful Team	98
14.4	Enthusiasm Adds Momentum to Your Voice and Body Language	100
	References	102
15	Relevance: How Significant Is Your Project for Others?	105
15.1	Your Target Group: Who Is Interested in Your Project—and Why?	106
15.2	Feasibility: Can You Implement Your Project Idea?	106
15.3	Can You Scale Your Project?	107
	Reference	108

16	Innovation: Highlight Your Unique Selling Proposition (USP)	109
16.1	Pioneer Factor: Your Innovation Broadens Horizons	110
16.2	Originality and Creativity: The USP of Your Project	111
	References	113
17	Take Home Message: Your Headline in One Sentence	115
17.1	Create Suspense in Your Audience's Minds	116
17.2	Less Is More: Why Short Messages Are so Successful	118
17.3	Your Take Home Message Arouses Your Audience's Curiosity	119
17.4	A Concise Key Message for Each Part of Your Speech	127
17.5	New Suggestions for Catchy Key Messages	128
	References	130

Part III Science Pitch in Practice

18	Design Your Science Pitch Canvas	135
19	Deliver Your Science Pitch	139
	References	146
20	Interview on Science Pitches with Christopher Tobe Okolo (PhD Student)	147
21	Outro: Bring Your Expertise with Power to the Point	157