

Contents

1	Beyond Technology. Our New Life with IT	1
	Digital Psychograms	2
	Life on the Platforms	8
	Artificial Intelligence and Learning Machines	12
	Are Algorithms Evil?	16
	The Democratization of Knowledge	22
	New Work and the Placeless Society	26
	Love, Sex, and Bits & Bytes	33
2	America's Dominance and Europe's Opportunities	45
	The Emergence of Modern Computers	48
	Born in the USA?	50
	Bletchley Park, Colossus, and Nazi Cryptography	54
	Zuse's High-Tech Start-Up	61
	Commercialization as a Success Factor	63
	Historical Lesson	65

3	The Rise of IT to World Power	71
	Connected Worlds	72
	Fresh Chips From Texas	74
	The Great Shrinking	77
	Computers Become Personal	80
	BASIC, an Apple, and the PC in a Blue Suit	83
	One Network to Rule them all	93
	The Perfect Storm	101
4	The Transformation of the Economy	105
	The Digitization of Everything	106
	Industry 4.0, 5G, and Digital Twins	111
	Platform Economy and the Reinvention of Value Creation	119
	The End of Centralization?—Crypto Economy and Blockchains	133
5	IT as Politics by Other Means	145
	Gray Areas Between War and Peace	147
	Big Tech as a Political Actor	156
	Digital Arms Race	161
	One World, Two Systems	165
	The Battle for Chips	169
	Splinternet—The Fragmentation of the Digital World	178
	Backbone of the Internet	185
6	New Hackonomy—The Alternative Platform Economy	193
	Black Hats, White Hats	195
	Business Models of a Parallel World	198
	Crime as a Service	201
	Cyber Mercenaries	207
	Money Heist and Golden Data	210
	Classics of State Hackers: Sabotage and Espionage	217

	Contents	xix
	Hacking for a Better World	222
	The Enemy in Your House	224
7	In the Basement Vaults of the Internet	227
	Origins of the Dark Web	228
	Journey Through the Night	230
	Good and Evil in Virtual Space	232
	Cracks in the Web	236
8	Digital Border Shift	241
	Metaverse—Surfing the Web is So Yesterday	242
	The Internet as Blockchain: Web 3.0	248
	Computing with Quanta and the Reinvention of the Computer	252
	Mobility of the Future	261
	The Regulation of the Unpredictable	268
	Epilogue	271
	Notes	281