

Contents

|                                                                                                                 |           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Preface .....                                                                                                   | XI        |
| Abbreviations .....                                                                                             | XIII      |
| Introduction .....                                                                                              | XVII      |
|                                                                                                             |           |
| 1 The Methodological Framework .....                                                                     | 1  |
| 1.1 Objective, Objects of Research and Thesis .....                                                             | 1         |
| 1.1.1 The Notion of Estate Planning .....                                                                | 1         |
| 1.1.2 Correspondent Concepts in Ancient Roman Law .....                                                  | 3         |
| 1.1.2.1 Blurred Juxtaposition: Acts Inter Vivos as ActsMortis Causa .....                     | 4         |
| 1.1.2.2 Last will? Ultimae voluntates! .....                                                             | 8         |
| 1.1.3 The Notion of Contractual Succession .....                                                         | 15        |
| 1.1.4 Thesis .....                                                                                       | 19        |
| 1.2 The State of the Field .....                                                                                | 19        |
| 1.2.1 Romanistic Scholarship on Contracts of SuccessionMortis Causa .....                     | 19        |
| 1.2.2 Roman Law and Social Realities .....                                                               | 27        |
| 1.2.2.1 'Law in Books' vs 'Law in Action' .....                                                                 | 27        |
| 1.2.2.2 Roman law vs Provincial law .....                                                                       | 32        |
| 1.2.2.3 Diocletian and the Struggle over Roman Law .....                                                        | 35        |
| 1.2.2.4 Estate Planning Between Roman andProvincial Law .....                                               | 39        |
| 1.2.2.5 Roman Law as the 'Law in Action' .....                                                                  | 43        |
| 1.3 Sources, Methods, and Research Plan .....                                                                   | 45        |
| 1.3.1 Sources .....                                                                                      | 45        |
| 1.3.2 Method .....                                                                                       | 49        |
| 1.3.3 Research Plan .....                                                                                | 54        |
|                                                                                                             |           |
| 2 The Institutions of Estate Planning .....                                                              | 57 |
| 2.1 Successio anticipata : Juridical Acts Concluded andExecuted During Life .....                    | 57        |
| 2.1.1 Divisio ab intestato .....                                                                         | 62        |
| 2.1.1.1 Introductory Remarks .....                                                                              | 62        |
| 2.1.1.2 The divisio in Classical Law .....                                                               | 66        |
| 2.1.1.2.1 Two Typical Cases: D. 10.2.20.3 (Ulp. 19 ed.)and D. 41.10.4.1 (Pomp. 32 Sab.) ..... | 67        |
| 2.1.1.2.2 The Intent to Distribute .....                                                                 | 80        |

|       |           |                                                                                                        |     |
|-------|-----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
|       | 2.1.1.2.3 | The Transfer of Assets .....                                                                    | 86  |
|       | 2.1.1.2.4 | The Modality of Control .....                                                                   | 93  |
|       | 2.1.1.2.5 | Liability for a Father's Debts .....                                                            | 103 |
|       | 2.1.1.3   | Postclassical Developments .....                                                                       | 109 |
|       | 2.1.1.4   | Justinian's Legislation .....                                                                          | 122 |
|       | 2.1.1.5   | Conclusions .....                                                                                      | 130 |
| 2.1.2 |           | Donationes .....                                                                                       | 134 |
|       | 2.1.2.1   | Introductory Remarks: Donatio as Liberalitas andDonatio as an Agreement ..... | 134 |
|       | 2.1.2.2   | Gifts as a Means of Estate Planning .....                                                              | 137 |
|       | 2.1.2.3   | Simple Gifts and 'Donations de Facto ' .....                                                    | 150 |
|       | 2.1.2.4   | Contributions to Future Legitim Portions .....                                                         | 158 |
|       | 2.1.2.5   | Subsequent Confirmations(Testaments and Codicils) .....                                            | 165 |
|       | 2.1.2.6   | Subsequent Confirmations by PerseverantiaVoluntatis .....                            | 170 |
|       | 2.1.2.7   | Donations of Entire Estates .....                                                                      | 178 |
|       | 2.1.2.8   | Gifts of a Third Party's Property .....                                                                | 184 |
|       | 2.1.2.9   | Conclusions .....                                                                                      | 190 |
| 2.1.3 |           | Dowries .....                                                                                   | 196 |
| 2.1.4 |           | Peculia .....                                                                                   | 202 |
| 2.1.5 |           | Specific Cases of Anticipated Succession .....                                                  | 209 |
|       | 2.1.5.1   | Entering a Monastery .....                                                                             | 210 |
|       | 2.1.5.2   | Anomalous Succession Linked to PenalSanctions .....                                                | 215 |
| 2.1.6 |           | Conclusions Concerning Anticipated Succession .....                                             | 216 |
| 2.2   |           | Juridical Acts Mortis Causa Enforced at Death .....                                             | 218 |
|       | 2.2.1     | Mancipatio familiae .....                                                                       | 218 |
|       | 2.2.1.1   | Archaic Testaments .....                                                                               | 219 |
|       | 2.2.1.2   | Tertium Genus Testamenti .....                                                                  | 220 |
|       | 2.2.1.3   | Conclusions .....                                                                                      | 227 |
|       | 2.2.2     | Stipulationes .....                                                                             | 228 |
|       | 2.2.2.1   | Introductory Remarks .....                                                                             | 228 |
|       | 2.2.2.2   | Death in Stipulatory Clauses .....                                                                     | 229 |
|       | 2.2.2.3   | The Promise to Institute as an Heir .....                                                              | 254 |
|       | 2.2.2.4   | Conclusions .....                                                                                      | 258 |
| 2.2.3 |           | Pacta .....                                                                                     | 260 |
|       | 2.2.3.1   | Introductory Remarks .....                                                                             | 260 |
|       | 2.2.3.2   | Pacta in Classical Law .....                                                                    | 261 |

|         |                                                                                   |     |
|---------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 2.2.3.3 | Postclassical and Justinianic Developments                                        | 268 |
| 2.2.3.4 | Conclusions                                                                       | 284 |
| 2.2.4   | Pacta Dotalia Mortis Causa                                                        | 285 |
| 2.2.4.1 | Introductory Remarks                                                              | 286 |
| 2.2.4.2 | Transfer of Dowry in the Event of Death                                           | 289 |
| 2.2.4.3 | Bonos Mores as the Limiting Factor in Dotal Pacts                          | 308 |
| 2.2.4.4 | Pacts Excluding the Inheritance Rights of a Daughter                              | 319 |
| 2.2.4.5 | Conclusions                                                                       | 323 |
| 2.2.5   | Mandatum Post Mortem and Related Institutions                              | 327 |
| 2.2.5.1 | Introductory Remarks                                                              | 328 |
| 2.2.5.2 | The Commission to Bury and Erect a Monument (the Case of Actio Funeraria ) | 330 |
| 2.2.5.3 | The ‘Proper’ Mandatum Post Mortem                                          | 339 |
| 2.2.5.4 | Mandatum mortis causa and depositum mortis causa                    | 351 |
| 2.2.5.5 | Conclusions                                                                       | 352 |
| 2.2.6   | Conclusions on Wealth Transfers Enforced at Death                          | 354 |
| 2.3     | Agreements Concerning Succession Mortis Causa Concluded Post Mortem | 360 |
| 2.3.1   | Venditio hereditatis                                                              | 361 |
| 2.3.2   | Postmortal Pacts and Transactiones                                         | 365 |
| 2.3.2.1 | The Morphology of Postmortal Agreements                                           | 365 |
| 2.3.2.2 | Postmortal Pacts                                                                  | 368 |
| 2.3.2.3 | Transactiones                                                              | 370 |
| 2.3.3   | Conclusions Regarding Postmortal Arrangements                              | 374 |
| 3       | Conclusions                                                                       | 377 |
| 3.1     | General Observations                                                              | 378 |
| 3.2     | Specific Observations                                                             | 380 |
| 3.2.1   | Pattern 1: Estate Planning within the Family Circle                        | 381 |
| 3.2.2   | Pattern 2: The Role of Social Stratification                               | 383 |
| 3.2.3   | Pattern 3: Informal Relationships intra domum and Beyond                   | 386 |
| 3.2.4   | Pattern 4: the (Ir)relevance of Systematic Thinking in Law                 | 390 |
| 3.3     | Final Observations                                                                | 392 |

Bibliography ..... 397

Index of Sources ..... 443

    Juridical Sources ..... 443

    Non-juridical Sources ..... 457