

Content

THE OKTOBERFEST

A festival like no other

Page 10

PART I – The Oktoberfest is calling:

A relude to another world

Invitation introduction and orientation

D'Wiesn – O'zapft is – Come in

Page 12

PART II – Tents and their souls (1)

From mood makers to quiet connoisseurs

Fischer-Vroni – Marstall-Festzelt – Armbrustschützenzelt –
Schützen-Festzelt – Flirt signals bound in fabric: The secret codes of dirndl bows – Ochsenbraterei – Hofbräu-Festzelt –
Bavarian traditional costume, what is it actually? –
Augustiner-Festzelt – Georg Lang – Hacker-Festzelt –
The Wiesn service teams – Festhalle Schottenhamel

Page 44

PART III – Between glamor and insider tip

Moods, locations and impressions away from the big tents

The special Wiesn feeling – Small but nice –
Münchner Stubn – Rischart's Café Kaiserschmarrn –
Café Theres' – The heroes in the background – To reserve or not –
The Oide Wiesn – Festzelt Tradition

Page 120

PART IV – Tents and their souls (2)

Where party animals roar and traditionalists sway

Kufflers Weinzelt – Löwenbräu-Festzelt – The mood makers –
If you're in, you're inside – Pschorr-Bräurosl – Paulaner-Festzelt –
Käfer Wiesen-Schänke – When the evening writes its own script –
The perfect Oktoberfest day – Where the air shimmers

Page 164

PART V – When it's over...

Afterglow, melancholy and thanks

The grand finale – The After-Wiesen –
One more thing... – At the end, or rather: See you again –
Thanks

Page 236