

Table of Contents

Foreword	7
Baker
Author Biographies.	11
List of Abbreviations.	15
Chapter 1
Music Therapy and Wellbeing Models in Dementia Care in Germany, Australia, and South Africa	19
Wosch, Campbell & Tamplin
Chapter 2
An Intercultural Comparison of Home-Based Musical Activities for People with Dementia and their Family Members in Australia and Germany.	33
McMahon & Petrowitz
Chapter 3
Training and Practice of Music-Based Strategies for the Care of People with Dementia: Models from Germany and South Africa.	49
Thurn & Stuart-Röhm
Chapter 4
Shared Mechanisms and Outcomes for Older Adults with Different Clinical Conditions – Similarities Between Singing and Songwriting Interventions for Wellbeing	73
Eickholt & Thompson
Chapter 5
The Economic Context of Dementia Care in Germany and Australia – The Cost-Effectiveness of Music Therapy	97
Campbell, Wosch & Warnke

Chapter 6

Translating Research into Practice: Implementing Music Interventions for Dementia in the German Context 131

Campbell & Wosch

Chapter 7

State of the Art and Future Directions in the Care of Older Adults with and without Dementia 145

Campbell, Wosch & Tamplin

References 157

Index 199