

Table of contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgements   | ix  |
| Introduction   | 1   |
| 1 The challenges of paying for journalism  | 5   |
| 2 How the news business entered the digital age – a history                            | 17  |
| 3 Current journalism business models – new ways to support traditional revenue streams | 35  |
| 4 Sponsorship and philanthropy   | 53  |
| 5 Microfunding and micropayments   | 65  |
| 6 Collaboration between mainstream media and citizen journalists                       | 75  |
| 7 Family ownership and trusts  | 89  |
| 8 Narrowing the focus with niche and passion content                                   | 101 |
| 9 Partnerships – adding value  | 115 |
| 10 Microeconomic concepts – creating a framework for new business models               | 127 |
| 11 E-commerce and engagement – converting users into paying customers                  | 139 |
| 12 Building the news business through innovation                                       | 149 |
| 13 Digital deliverance? Electronic paper and e-readers                                 | 161 |
| 14 Into the future   | 173 |
| Index  | 179 |