

Contents

Nele Noesselt
The Indo-Pacific: Navigating in the Shadow of Uncertainty 1

Lena Herholz
The Indo-Pacific as a Hybrid Order: Middle Powers, Strategic Narratives, and the Contestation of Liberal Norms 9

Alexander Graf
Changing Approaches to the Indo-Pacific: The Philippines as a Small Power in the World’s Most Strategically Important Region 31

Cedric Stolle
Navigating Blue Growth: Vietnam’s Sustainable Ocean Development Strategy and the Role of Marine Spatial Planning 61

Ariane Bischoff
Navigating History: South Korea’s Leadership Transition and Its Impact on Historical Grievances within the South Korean–Japanese–US Security Alliance 85

Contents

Cedric Stolle
Resolving Disputes in the South China Sea? The Natuna Compromise in Its Local and Regional Context	111
Xenia Prostak
Cyber Narratives: Are Japan and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations Moving Toward Greater Alignment with China in their Approaches to Cyber Governance?	133