

| | |
|---|--|
| 16 Hans-Peter Wipplinger Prologue and Acknowledgements | 104 Kerstin Jesse, Jane Kallir Plates with Introductions |
| 20 Kerstin Jesse From “Hell Brueghel” to “Decipherer of Human Traits” Egon Schiele’s “Late” Works 1914–1918 | 106 The Search for Self 116 Couples 132 Edith Anna Schiele, neé Harms 164 Family 190 Army Life 216 Landscapes 230 The Female Figure 246 Portraits 264 Success and Last Works |
| 34 Jane Kallir Edith and Egon Scenes from a Marriage | |
| 50 Edith Schiele The Diary “I will not call this book a diary – but rather a book of consolation.” | |
| 78 Hannes Leidinger On the Home Front Egon Schiele and the Experience of World War I | 314 Simone Hönigl “AN ETERNAL DREAMING FULL WITH THE SWEETEST EXCESS OF LIFE – DISQUIETED” Biography with a List of Exhibitions, 1914–1918 |
| 90 Sandra Maria Dzialek From the Ground Up On the Development of Egon Schiele’s Painting Technique | 330 Lenders 331 Authors 332 Picture Credits and Notes 334 Publisher’s Notes |