

Contents

Introduction: Scrutinizing Capital with One's Eyes Wide Open	vii
Introduction (1975 edition)	7
1. The Laws of Motion and the History of Capital	13
2. The Structure of the Capitalist World Market	44
3. The Three Main Sources of Surplus-Profit in the Development of Modern Capitalism	75
4. 'Long Waves' in the History of Capitalism	108
5. Valorization of Capital, Class Struggle and the Rate of Surplus-Value in Late Capitalism	147
6. The Specific Nature of the Third Technological Revolution	184
7. The Reduction of the Turnover-Time of Fixed Capital	223
8. The Acceleration of Technological Innovation	248
9. The Permanent Arms Economy and Late Capitalism	274
10. The International Concentration and Centralization of Capital	310
11. Neo-Colonialism and Unequal Exchange	343
12. The Expansion of the Services Sector, the 'Consumer Society', and the Realization of Surplus-Value	377
13. Permanent Inflation	408
14. The Industrial Cycle in Late Capitalism	438
15. The State in the Age of Late Capitalism	474
16. Ideology in the Age of Late Capitalism	500
17. Late Capitalism as a Whole	523
18. The Crisis of Capitalist Relations of Production	562
Glossary	591
Index	601