

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements — IX

Abbreviations — XV

Translation and Transliteration — XVII

- 1 Introduction — 1
- 2 Interpretation of the Qur'an and the Hadith — 25
  - Lexis and Semantics — 32
  - Abrogation as an Interpretive Device — 40
  - Explanation by Citing Occasions of Revelation — 44
  - Specification — 45
  - Privileging Principles over Particulars — 47
  - The Interpretation of Hadith — 49
- 3 Jihad in Transition — 62
  - Hadith Literature — 69
  - Jihad in the Collections of Hadith — 73
  - Exegeses of the Qur'an — 76
  - Books on Jihad — 83
- 4 Jihad and the Family of Shāh Walīullāh — 89
- 5 Colonial Modernists — 112
- 6 Jihad as Anti-Colonial Resistance: Emerging Trends — 134
- 7 The Age of Mawdūdī — 168
- 8 Radical Imports — 194
- 9 Pakistani Radicals — 212
- 10 Refuting the Radicals — 233
- 11 Conclusion — 249

Annexure A: War-related Verses in the Qur'an — 265

Annexure B — 279

Al-Baqarah 2 (The Cow) — 279

Al-Anfāl 8 (Spoils of War) — 279

Al-Tawbah 9 — 279

Al-Mumtahina 60 (She that is to be examined) — 280

Annexure C — 281

Aḥādīth — 281

Glossary — 283

Bibliography — 284

- 1 Primary Sources — 284
- 1.1. The Qur'an and its Exegeses — 284
- 1.2 The Hadith — 285
- 1.3 Edicts (fatāwā) — 286
- 1.4 Manuscripts and Recordings (all these sources are from the Oriental and India Office Collection, the British Library, unless otherwise indicated) — 287
- 2 Other Sources — 287

Index — 308