

Contents

Kathrin Wild / Tina Grummel / Nina Dasouqi
Why should we internationalise teacher education? An introduction . . .	9
1 Conceptual approaches
Ina Biederbeck
Internationalisation of teacher education – strategies and approaches at universities in Germany	19
Valéria Árva / Éva Trentinné Benkő
Developing a strategy for internationalisation in primary and preschool teacher training	29
Hanna Theele
Fundamental changes in the recognition practice – an approach to promote and recognise mobility of teacher education students	43
Laurenz Volkmann . .
Civic education online: the model project of a Jewish-Palestine-German online course on civic education	51
Björn Rothstein / Judith Visser / Marie Vanderbeke / Nicole Kauffmann / Joana Kadir / Henning Feldmann
International student research in the context of teacher education	55
Alexandra Funk / Lukas Eibensteiner / Laurenz Volkmann
Virtual exchanges and online tandem collaboration in higher education	65

2 Good practice

Rachel Bowden
A comparison of international teacher education mobility formats for sustainability education 71

Sandra Frey / Camilla Franziska Hansen
“Minorities as windows to the world” – an experience report on a binational seminar 81

Heloise Sathorar / Till-Sebastian Idel / Tina Grummel
Teaching Across Borders (TAB): Reflections on an online internship to foster international teacher education 93

Sabine Lang / Gabriella von Lieres und Wilkau
Launching a virtual community of practice to promote virtual exchange for the internationalisation at home in teacher education – lessons from a pilot project 99

Emmanuel Ojo
Ethical integration of technology in teacher education: a global perspective 105

Martina Zier / Marta Janachowska-Budych
Intercultural competence for teachers and linguists in theory and practice: a German-Polish project 109

Gabriella Pataky / Viola Rekvényi / Judit Skaliczki
Collaboration as a strategy of visual art education in the international #EnDeHu visual education program 115

Jule Lorleberg / Jutta Bedehäsing
Conditions for successful internationalisation at home in primary teacher education 121

Andrea Ágnes Poros
Killing two birds with one stone. Teaching children’s literature to students at an international pre-school programme in Hungary 125

3 Findings from research

Anja A. Wilken / Andreas Bonnet / Telse Iwers / Taylor Schmidt /
Jocelyn Glazier / Samuel K. Hayford / Dandy G. Dampson
Moving the needle on study abroad: a multilevel approach 133

Anneke Langer / Jürgen Schwier / Miriam Seyda / Sina Hinternesch
Case-based learning in physical education teacher education 145

Kathrin Wild
Why do so few teacher education students go abroad? Answers and opportunities to increase mobility 157

About the contributors 175