

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Foreword	ix
Sophie Gilliat-Ray
 PART I: CHAPLAINCY HANDBOOK Mahshid Turner
1 Introduction	3
2 History of Christian Chaplaincy	7
3 History of Muslim Chaplaincy	9
4 Defining Muslim Chaplaincy	13
5 The Role of Prophets as ‘Shepherds of Transcendence’	17
6 The Character of the Prophets	21
7 How Can Muslim Theology be Practiced in Pluralistic Settings?	39
8 What Do Muslim Chaplains Do?	41
9 Theological Reflection	45
10 Critical Reflection, Self-vigilance (murāqaba) and Self-accounting (muḥāsaba)	53
11 Matters of Concern for Muslim Students and Staff	59
12 Pastoral and Spiritual Care: The Shepherding of Muslim Chaplains	65
Notes	81
Bibliography	87

PART 2: VOICES

Introduction	93
1 Aameena Blake (University of Sheffield)	95
2 Syeda Midhat Batool (Loughborough University)	117
3 Amra Bone (University of Portsmouth)	145
4 Mahshid Turner (Durham University)	161
5 Rukia Bi (Keele University)	177
6 Sabiha Iqbal (Roehampton University)	193
Notes	215
Bibliography	217

PART 3: INTERVIEWS

1 Ameira Abahadur Kutkut (Cardiff Metropolitan University)	223
2 Umm Issa (Manchester Metropolitan University)	231
3 Farhat Yaqoob (Leeds University)	237
4 Concluding Remarks	245
About the Contributors	247