

Contents

Foreword..... 9

Acknowledgements..... 11

Editorial Note..... 15

1. Introduction..... 17

 Thesis..... 21

 Summary of Research..... 21

 Methodology..... 26

 Overview..... 31

2. “Let them be Heretics, Turks, Jews”: English Judeo-Centric Interpretation and the Baptists’ Toleration of the Jews..... 35

 The Reformation and the Jews..... 37

 Baptists and the Jews..... 51

 Conclusion..... 57

3. “Eminent Nation of the Jews”: Henry Jessey and the Readmission of the Jews..... 59

 Henry Jessey’s Judeo-Centric Millenarianism..... 61

 Readmission of the Jews..... 83

 Jessey’s Philo-Semitic Benevolence..... 92

 Conclusion..... 99

4. “Hearts . . . zion-ward”: Thomas Collier, Hanserd Knollys, John Bunyan and the Restoration of the Jews..... 101

 Thomas Collier..... 103

 Hanserd Knollys..... 112

 John Bunyan..... 123

 Conclusion..... 131

5. “His Favourite People”: John Gill and the Conversion of the Jews..... 133

 Gill’s Eschatological Framework..... 137

 Gill’s Theology of the Jews..... 153

Conclusion 168

6. “Let Not The Poor Jews Be Forgotten”: Andrew Fuller and the Mission to the Jews 171

 Fuller’s Eschatological Focus 173

 Influences on Fuller’s Theology of the Jews 176

 Jonathan Edwards 181

 John Gill 189

 Fuller’s Theology of the Jews 190

 Israel’s Confrontation 199

 Mission to the Jews 201

 Conclusion 210

7. Conclusion 213

Bibliography 219

 Archival Material 219

 Primary Sources 219

 Secondary Sources 226

Index 255