

Contents

Maciej Serowaniec / Agnieszka Lawskowska-Hulisz / Marcin Drewek
Introduction 7

Aleksandra Kustra-Rogatka
What do we owe our grand-grandchildren? The rights of future generations, environmental protection, and theories of intergenerational justice 11

Kinga Janowska / Aleksandra Kościelak / Marcin Drewek
Regulation regarding energy sale prices and the issue of energy security – remarks in the light of current EU legal standards implementation on the example of the Polish legal system 21

Małgorzata Cilak / Martyna Wilmanowicz-Słupczewska
Legal basis of state aid for energy from renewable sources 43

Paweł Majka / Jacek Wantoch-Rekowski
Property tax and agricultural tax as tools to support renewable energy production – selected issues 57

Tomasz Kuczyński / Piotr Rączka
Investment in renewable energy sources against the background of the problem of maintaining biologically active areas 69

Karolina Karpus
Nature conservation and scientific uncertainty – the transformation of public law in the light of the precautionary principle 79

Jerzy Lachowski / Natalia Daśko
Can artificial intelligence be criminally liable? 97

Kinga Bączyk-Rozwadowska / Damian Kaczan
Artificial Intelligence as a Challenge for Modern Medicine and Law . . .	115
 Agnieszka Laskowska-Hulisz
Artificial intelligence (AI) in civil proceedings – selected issues	131
 Maciej Serowaniec
The role of the European Semester in promoting green energy and modern technologies in the EU Member States	141
 List of authors	153