

Contents

1	Introduction: Speaking of alienation	1
2	Being outside oneself as a state of emergency: Alienation in the works of Rousseau	17
3	Schiller, Humboldt, Fichte: Art and education as a counterweight to alienation	35
4	Hegel: Reversing and intensifying alienation inside the system	46
5	In God we trust, or religion and money: Ludwig Feuerbach and Moses Hess	58
6	Karl Marx: Autonomous development and radical practice	69
7	Critiques of alienation critique: Simmel, Plessner and Gehlen	89
8	Sociological theories of alienation: From Weberian Marxism to empiricism	102
9	A false reversal or an amplification of alienation? Recent debates in 'new' critical theory	115
10	Between nostalgia and freedom: On the future of alienation critique	133
	Literature	142
	Index	153