

Overview

Chapter I

– The Vis Moot: A Lifetime Experience –

Chapter II

– The Vis Moot: Facts and Figures –

Chapter III

– How to Start –

Chapter IV

– How to Write Effective Memoranda –

Chapter V

– How to Present Your Case before the Arbitral Tribunal –

Chapter VI

– Virtual Hearings –

Chapter VII

– AI in the Vis Moot –

Chapter VIII

– Seven Days in Vienna and Hong Kong –

Chapter IX

– Where to go from Here –

Chapter X

– Coaching –

Chapter XI

– Views from the Dachgeschoss –

Chapter XII

– Views from Around the World –

Contents

I. The Vis Moot: A Lifetime Experience	1
1. The Vis Moot teaches you invaluable skills	2
2. The Vis Moot is a tough challenge	2
3. The Vis Moot is a stepping stone for your career	3
4. The Vis Moot will show you the “real life”	3
5. The Vis Moot is meeting nice people from all over the world and having fun	4
6. Up close and personal: Interview with Professor Eric E. Bergsten ...	5
 II. The Vis Moot: Facts and Figures	 11
1. What is a “Moot Court”?	11
2. What is the Vis Moot?	12
3. Why apply for the Vis Moot	14
4. History of the Vis Moot	16
5. The timeframe of the Vis Moot	22
5.1 The distribution of the Vis Moot problem	22
5.2 Deadline for Requests for Clarification	23
5.3 Closing date for submission of registration form, payment of registration fee due	24
5.4 Memorandum for Claimant due	24
5.5 Memorandum for Respondent due	25
5.6 Official Welcome and Reception	25
5.7 General Rounds of Argument	25
5.8 Elimination Rounds of Argument	26
5.9 Awards banquets	26
6. Up close and personal: Interview with Patricia Shaughnessy	27
 III. How to Start	 33
1. Composition of the teams	33
1.1 Eligibility	33
1.2 The selection process	34
1.3 The number of students in a team	34
2. What must be done to register?	36
2.1 Registration process for the Vis Moot in Vienna	36
2.2 Registration process for the Vis East Moot	36
3. Team building	37
3.1 Why is team building so important?	37
3.2 Some suggestions for team building	38
4. The benefits of having a coach and how to find one	39
5. Getting to know the subject matter	40
6. Kick-off meeting	42
6.1 How to read the Problem	42
6.2 A timetable	44
6.3 The resources	45

Contents

6.4 The assignment of the issues	46
6.5 The introduction to the Vis Moot memoranda writing style	47
7. The costs of the Vis Moot and the possible ways of funding	48
7.1 The costs	48
7.2 The possible funding sources	51
8. “New media” and the Vis Moot	51
8.1 Use new media for research!	51
8.2 Use new media for promotion!	52
8.3 Use new media for getting together!	53
8.4 Use new media for your supporters at home!	53
8.5 A note of caution	54
9. Start visa application on time	55
IV. How to Write Effective Memoranda	59
1. The Moot’s “written” phase	59
1.1 Course of the “written” phase	59
1.2 The basic structure of your memorandum	59
1.3 Formalities and tips for brushing up your memorandum	64
1.4 Special rules for the memorandum for Respondent	66
1.5 The grading of your submission	67
2. Reality check: Submissions in international arbitration	68
2.1 The course of written submissions in international arbitrations	68
2.2 The typical content and format of written submissions	70
2.3 The cultural divide revisited: Different styles of briefs	71
3. Ground rules for writing effective submissions	72
3.1 Rule 1: KISS – Use short sentences	73
3.2 Rule 2: What matters most – subject + verb	75
3.3 Rule 3: Choose the right subject and apply that subject consistently	76
3.4 Rule 4: Choose wisely between active voice vs. passive voice	77
3.5 Rule 5: Put the power into the verb, avoid nominalizations	79
3.6 Rule 6: Delete adjectives and adverbs	80
3.7 Rule 7: Do not overuse legalese and lawyerisms	80
3.8 Rule 8: Use headings effectively	81
3.9 Rule 9: Avoid spelling errors	82
3.10 Rule 10: Always start by indicating the issue	83
4. Recommendations for advanced writing (or: rules for winning)	85
4.1 Recommendation 1: Persuasion triggers – The hidden power of the word “because”	85
4.2 Recommendation 2: Use enumerations to become more persuasive	86
4.3 Recommendation 3: Use evidence and exhibits effectively	88
4.4 Recommendation 4: “First impressions count, last impressions stay”	89
4.5 Recommendation 5: Quote powerfully	91
4.6 Recommendation 6: Create images in your readers’ minds	92
V. How to Present Your Case Before the Arbitral Tribunal	95
1. The setting of the Oral Pleadings	95
1.1 The venue	95
1.2 The arbitrators	96

Contents

1.3 The number of oral hearings and the number of team members involved	96
1.4 The available time	97
1.5 The typical course of the Oral Pleading	98
1.6 The grading system used	99
2. Reality check: Oral Pleadings in international arbitration	100
2.1 Civil Law style vs. Common Law approach	100
2.2 Importance of Oral Pleadings	100
3. Before you start	101
3.1 You never get a second chance... ..	101
3.2 How you look – It matters	102
3.3 Make the life of the arbitrators easy	103
3.4 Your desk (should look organized)	103
4. Ground rules	104
4.1 Always start strong: Cognitive dissonance and confirmation bias	104
4.2 How to address the Arbitral Tribunal	105
4.3 Slow down: Listening is difficult	106
4.4 The attention span of the arbitrators is limited – KISS	106
4.5 Structure of presentation is vital	108
4.6 Know the facts of the case	110
4.7 Be articulate	111
4.8 Teamwork – You count as a team so behave as one	113
4.9 End on a strong note	114
5. Rules for success	115
5.1 Be daring, be different, be first	115
5.2 Opening bundles and illustrative objects	116
5.3 Entertain and personalize	117
5.4 About jokes	119
5.5 Customize your pleading for the arbitrators	120
5.6 Be suggestive of spontaneity and react to the other side	121
5.7 Create visual images	122
6.8 Show that you are more than a lawyer	123
6. About questions	124
6.1 Demonstrate that you appreciate the question	125
6.2 Structure your answer	125
6.3 KISS	126
6.4 What if you don't know the answer	127
7. The minutes after the Oral Pleading	128
8. Training	128
8.1 Personality = per sound	129
8.2 Dealing with nervousness (thanks, adrenaline!)	129
8.3 Write it down and rehearse	130
8.4 List of questions	131
8.5 Structured feedback and videotaping	131
8.6 Practice: Pre-Moot events	132
VI. Virtual Hearings	137
1. The virtual Vis Moot	137
2. Virtual hearings in real life arbitration	138
2.1 Challenges with virtual hearings	139
2.2 Arguments in favor of virtual hearings	140
2.3 Conclusion	140

Contents

3. Top 10 tips for virtual hearings	142
3.1 Tip 1: Preparation is key and takes more time	142
3.2 Tip 2: Focus on the most important issues	142
3.3 Tip 3: Act before the camera	142
3.4 Tip 4: Allocate defined roles within your team and ensure effective communication with the client	144
3.5 Tip 5: Resist the temptation of looking into your “mirror”	144
3.6 Tip 6: Make prudent use of hearing bundles	145
3.7 Tip 7: Choose the right platform for your hearing	145
3.8 Tip 8: Ensure that you have a proper setting	146
3.9 Tip 9: Beware of the technical traps	146
3.10 Tip 10: Testing, testing, testing	146
VII. AI in the Vis Moot	149
1. Integration of rules on the use of AI	149
2. Interview with the Vis Moot Directors and the Head of Digital Strategy	151
VIII. Seven Days in Vienna and/or Hong Kong	157
1. Be aware: The Moot is an educational tool with competitive elements – Not a competition with educational side effects	157
2. Being team-spirited: The oral pleadings	158
2.1 Vienna calling	158
2.2 Mooties go East	161
2.3 Whether in Vienna or Hong Kong: Let the pleadings begin	161
3. Being social: Receptions and parties	164
3.1 Receptions and parties in Vienna	165
3.2 Receptions and parties in Hong Kong	167
4. Being in Vienna: How to make the most of your stay	170
4.1 How do I get around in Vienna?	170
4.2 Where do I stay in Vienna?	171
4.3 What to do in Vienna?	172
4.4 Food culture: What do I eat in Vienna?	173
4.5 Views from inside: Vienna in a nutshell	174
5. Being in Hong Kong: How to make the most of your stay	176
5.1 How do I get around in Hong Kong?	176
5.2 Where do I stay in Hong Kong?	177
5.3 What to do in Hong Kong	178
5.4 Food culture: What do I eat in Hong Kong?	181
5.5 Views from inside: Hong Kong in a nutshell	181
IX. Where to go from Here: Life goes on After the Moot	185
1. Stay involved: Moot Alumni Association	185
2. Come back in a different role: Become a Moot Coach and/or Arbitrator	186
3. Looking ahead: Job opportunities in the arbitration world	187
3.1 There is more than one career path in international arbitration	187
3.2 Arbitration needs input	187
3.3 Take your chances	188

Contents

4. An exclusive club: Women in arbitration	188
4.1 The present: Women in arbitration are outnumbered	188
4.2 A change in progress: Perception of women in the business world	190
4.3 The future: More women in arbitration around the world	191
X. Coaching	193
1. Coaches make the Moot work	193
1.1 Rise to the level of a coach	193
1.2 The three tasks of a coach	194
1.3 How to make coaching work	198
2. Let the Coaches speak: Interview with Jacob Lampert	198
XI. Views from the Dachgeschoss	203
1. University of Vienna/Austria: One team to win the Moot!	204
2. Stetson University College of Law/USA	209
3. Nova University of Lisbon/Portugal	216
4. Hokkaido University/Japan	221
5. Bucerius Law School, Hamburg/Germany	226
XII. Views from Around the World	233
1. Behind closed doors: Arbitral proceedings in the real world	233
2. Addicted to the Moot: Why so many Arbitrators come back year after year	235
3. New capacity: What makes Mooties come back as Arbitrators?	237
4. Arbitration in Brazil: Professional sailing through tropical waters	242
5. The positive paradox: How the Vis Moot can change the future of arbitration	246
6. Reality check	248
7. International arbitration in Asia	250
8. International arbitration in Australia: Chances and challenges	253
9. Farewell Mootie: How to come back in a different role	255
Who We Are	259