

Inhalt

Preface	9
-------------------	---

What makes the difference between Digital and Distant Diplomatics? Georg Vogeler, Daniel Luger	11
--	----

I. Diplomatics and Computational Methods: Internal Features

Patterns of Change

The DEEDS Database, Topic Modeling and Network Analysis in English Medieval Charters, and the Future of Digital Diplomatics Michael Gervers, Gelila Tilahun	21
---	----

Delegated Jurisdiction in the Iberian Peninsula of the 12th Century

Considerations on a Computational Approach to Personal Networks and Formulaic Language Marlene Ernst, Alina Ostrowski, Malte Rehbein	57
--	----

Linguistic research on medieval Latin charters

What to expect of digital diplomatics? Timo Korkiakangas	75
--	----

Reflections on charter redaction

An assessment of a stylometric approach in studying the Cambrai bishop's diplomatic landscape (12 th c.) Eveline Leclercq	97
--	----

II. Diplomatics and Computational Methods: External Features

Image processing and semantic technologies in digital humanities

The NOTAE experience Zabira Ziran, Francesco Leotta, Massimo Mecella, Antonella Ghignoli	113
--	-----

Roman medieval documents meet machine learning

An experience of research and teaching. Serena Ammirati, Lorenzo Lastilla, Paolo Merialdo, Marco Maiorino .	135
---	-----

BeCoRe – Between Composition and Reception
The Authority of Medieval Charters
Nicole Bergk-Pinto, Jacqueline Schindler, Niklas Tscherne	145
From archives to archaeology via machine learning
An automated approach to dating medieval seal matrices from Britain
John A. McEwan	159
Qualitative Space in Digital Diplomatics
Mark Bell, Eirini Goudarouli, John Stell, Jane Winters	175
Combining Automatic Text Recognition with Digital Paleography
New Trajectories for Digital Diplomatics
Tobias Hodel, Jonas Widmer	197

III. Charters and their Digital Editions

The Documents et analyses linguistiques de la Galloromania médiévale (GallRom) – a new potential for interpretive research
Martin Glessgen, Marguerite Dallas	215
El etiquetado de los documentos notariales para el análisis diplomático
Experiencias del proyecto NotFor
Miguel Calleja-Puerta	235
Diplomatarium Serbicum Digitale
Eine Wiederaufnahme zwischen Datenbank und digitaler Edition
Žarko Vujošević	255
Quellen zur Geschichte des Alpen-Adria-Raumes
Digitale Urkundenedition auf Basis von MediaWiki
Christian Domenig	277
Editing Mediaeval Diplomatic Sources in Slovakia
Balázs Csiba	287

The Digitale Charterbank Nederland
A digital portal to more than 200.000 charters in Dutch archives
Jan Burgers, Rik Hoekstra	297
Die Urkunden der Pfalzgrafen Friedrich und Philipp 1449–1508
Ein Projekt zur digitalen Erschließung und Präsentation eines herausragenden spätmittelalterlichen Urkundenbestandes
Stefan Bröhl	321
The digital methods of publishing 15 th century papal sources
Adam Zapata	329
Support of Hungaricana research
A database of diplomatic sources and an experience of 3D scanning of wax seals
Ádám Novák, Sándor Ónadi	347
The Post-Mohács Era of the Hungarian Kingdom
Database of the Records from 1526–1570 in the Holdings of the National Archives of Hungary
Krisztina Arany, György Laczlavik	365
Abstracts	383
The Authors	394