

Contents

Acknowledgements IX

List of Illustrations X

Abbreviations XI

Notes on Transcription and Terminology XII

Introduction: Entering a Contested Terrain 1

- 1 Delineating the Object of Research 2
 - 1.1 Informality and Precarity 3
 - 1.2 Urban Inequality and Youth in Cities as a Research Field 6
 - 1.3 Studying Participation and Exclusion from a Youth Angle 8
- 2 Tunisia in the Midst of Political Transformation and Economic Crisis 11
- 3 Research Question, Structure, and Methods 15
 - 3.1 Spatial Contextualization 16
 - 3.2 Temporal Contextualization 17
 - 3.3 Socio-political Contextualization 17

1 Locating Global Contexts and Concepts 20

- 1 Core Issues of Urban Inequality across the North-South Divide 21
- 2 The Right to the City: A Global Discourse and Its Local Implications 25
- 3 Urban Spaces: Everyday Life and the Role of the State 31
- 4 Urban Youth: Scopes of Action and Forms of Exclusion 33
- 5 From the Informal Sector to Global Informalization 36
- 6 Precarity and Precaritization 43
- 7 Analytical Perspectives for the North African Context 47

2 Re-tracing Development in Tunisia: Root Causes of Economic and Spatial Inequities 49

- 1 Spatial Inequities, Social and Economic Cleavages 51
- 2 Historical Roots of Urbanization 57
- 3 Polarization in the Periphery of the Greater Tunis Region 59
- 4 Spatial and Economic Inequality 64
 - 4.1 Small-Scale Economy and the Informal Sector 64
 - 4.2 Internal and External Migration 68
 - 4.3 Cross-border Trade in the Periphery 71
 - 4.4 Urban Spaces: Markets and Street Trading in Tunis 74
- 5 Asymmetric Integration into Globalization Processes 83

| | | |
|----------|--|------------|
| 3 | Approaching the Field: Ettadhamen as a Suburban Area in Greater Tunis | 85 |
| 1 | On the Emergence of Ettadhamen: Informal Settlements and Restructuring | 86 |
| 2 | Economic Dynamics and Spaces of Everyday Practice | 93 |
| 3 | From Social Marginalization to Mobilization and Migration | 98 |
| 4 | Methodology and Fieldwork Concerns | 106 |
| 4.1 | Access to the Field | 107 |
| 4.2 | Analytical Approach: Reconstruction of Life Situations and Everyday Conditions | 111 |
| 5 | Researching Everyday Life in Structurally Disadvantaged Areas | 113 |
| 4 | Individual Life Situations (2012–2013): Informal and Precarious Work or Being Jobless | 116 |
| 1 | Contextualizing Politico-Institutional and Economic Conditions | 117 |
| 1.1 | Background to the Flexibilization and Precaritization of Employment in Tunisia | 117 |
| 1.2 | Self-employment and Microcredit Financing | 121 |
| 2 | The Situation of the Interviewees: Employed, Self-employed, Unemployed? | 127 |
| 3 | Selected Case Studies (2012–13) | 130 |
| 3.1 | Being Jobless: Causes of Economic Disintegration | 130 |
| 3.2 | Day Laborers and Street Vendors: Living from Hand to Mouth | 134 |
| 3.3 | Laboring in the Family Business: A Contained Workforce | 139 |
| 3.4 | Wage Labor: Gaining One's Livelihood in a Situation of Dependence | 141 |
| 3.5 | Self-employed Work: Autonomy Instead of Dependence? | 144 |
| 4 | Analytical Perspectives | 151 |
| 4.1 | Everyday Coping in the Here and Now – Transitions into an Uncertain Future | 151 |
| 4.2 | Interdependencies between Informal and Precarious Work | 155 |
| 4.3 | Self-employment and Informal Trade as an Alternative to Wage Labor? | 158 |
| 4.4 | Gaining Mobility despite Sociospatial Segregation? | 160 |
| 5 | Solidarity and Individual Subsistence Strategies | 162 |

5 Youth in Tunisia (2016): Precarious Living Conditions and Uncertain Prospects for the Future 164

- 1 Conceptualizing Transitional Phases: Waithood and Contained Youth 165
- 2 The Economic Situation of Tunisian Youth 170
- 3 Future Prospects in the Face of Precarity and Uncertainty 180
- 4 An Excluded Generation? 186
- 5 Conclusion: Youth as Agents of Change? 196

Conclusions: Joining the Dots and Looking toward the Future 199

- 1 Structural and Sociospatial Causes of Exclusion in the Urban Context of Tunisia 199
- 2 Post-Revolutionary Tunisia: Youth as a Precarious Living Situation 204
- 3 Global Outlook: Political Economy Perspectives on Youth 205

Bibliography 213

Index 238