

Table of Contents

Daniele Vicoli

Introduction 7

Daniele Vicoli

Editorial – Effective Justice: Between Efficiency and Guarantees..... 13

Part I Organisation of Judicial Systems..... 17

Barbara Janusz-Pohl

I. Perceptions of the Effectiveness and Its Interdisciplinary Approach – Keynotes..... 19

Benedetta Arrighini

II. Effectiveness Through Approximation in the EU Area of Freedom Security and Justice 51

Jacek Szkuclarek

III. The Impact of the Rule of Law Backslide on Revision of the Competences of the Court of Justice of the European Union on the Matter of Member States’ Domestic Jurisprudence 69

Ana Beltrán Montoliu

IV. Organizational Efficiency in the Spanish Judicial Power:
New Trends 93

Andrea Planchadell-Gargallo

V. Access to Justice and Proximity Justice in Spain:
the Valencian Model 109

Justyna Głębocka

VI. Model of Pre-trial Proceedings and Its Influence on the Judicial Stage of Criminal Proceedings:
A Comparative Analysis of European Legal Systems 121

Konrad Burdziak
VII. Applying the Achievements of 20th and 21st-Century Psychology to the Organisation of Justice: Remarks on the Improvement of Judicial Activity..... 139

Marcin Rau
VIII. Challenging Legal Education in Pursuit of Judicial Efficiency: A Comparative Analysis of Poland and Italy 173

Part II Digital Justice 193

Alejandro Hernández López
I. The European Union’s Strategy on Digitalisation of Judicial Cooperation in Criminal Matters: Towards a More Effective Justice in Cross-Border Scenarios? 195

Marianna Biral
II. The Italian Route towards Digitalisation of Criminal Proceedings – The Latest Developments in the Field of Remote Justice 217

Ewa Aleksandra Płocha
III. The Impact of AI-based Recidivism Risk Assessment Instruments on Human Decision-Making in Criminal Justice: COMPAS Case Study in the Context of Polish and European Union Law 235

Kristjan Kask, Annegrete Palu, Mari-Liis Tohvelmann, Pekka Santtila
IV. Systematic Literature Review of Associations Between Question Type and Adult Witnesses’ Accuracy: A Step in Creating a Digital Solution to Train Law Enforcement Personnel’s Investigative Interviewing Skills 259