
Contents

1	Introduction: Cross-Border Cooperation, Regional Strategies, and Borderlands	1
2	Cross-Border Cooperation as a Multilevel Endeavour	9
2.1	The Backdrop—Cross-Border Cooperation Within the Greater Region	10
2.1.1	Post-War Reconciliation at the European and Bilateral Level	10
2.1.2	The Development of Interregional Cooperation Within the Greater Region	12
2.2	Europe From the Bottom Up: The Development of French-German Intermunicipal Cross-Border Cooperation	19
2.2.1	The Early Years: Reconciliation, Rapprochement, and Town Twinnings	19
2.2.2	Cross-Border Cooperation Below the Nation State: The Expansion of Legal and Financial Opportunities	23
2.2.3	Intermunicipal Cross-Border Cooperation Between Saarland and Moselle	31
2.3	Recent Impulses towards Cross-Border Cooperation as Multilevel Endeavour	39
2.3.1	The France Strategy: Impulses for Regional Cross-Border Governance	40
2.3.2	The Aachen Treaty—Horizontal and Vertical Inclusion of Actors	58
2.4	Cross-Border Cooperation as a Multilevel Endeavour? Looking Back, Looking Forward	67

3	Theoretical and Conceptual Approaches towards Cross-Border (and) Multilevel Governance in European Border Regions	69
3.1	Conceptualisations of Multilevel Governance	70
3.1.1	From Government to Governance (?)	70
3.1.2	The Emergence of Multilevel Governance in the Context of EC/EU Reforms	73
3.1.3	Territorial and Functional Governance in Theory and Practice	77
3.2	Conceptualisation of Borders, Bordering and Borderlands	88
3.2.1	Considering Borders Throughout the 20 th and 21 st Century: Political Developments and Academic Perspectives	89
3.2.2	Looking Beyond the Line: Borders—Bordering Processes—Borderlands	94
3.3	Governance and Bordering: “Borderlands of Governance” and the Construction of Cross-Border Spatialities	107
3.3.1	(Re-)Scaling: Cross-Border Policy Spaces Within Multilevel Systems	108
3.3.2	The Link between Multilevel Cross-Border Governance and the (Communicative) Construction of Cross-Border Spaces—Conceptual and Empirical Insights	111
3.4	Governance in Borderlands, Borderlands of Governance: Formulating a Conceptualisation of the Governance-Spatialities Nexus	119
3.4.1	Making a Case for “Borderlands of Governance”	119
3.4.2	Narrowing Down the Research Interest: “Borderlands of Governance” as an Approach to Multilevel Cross-Border Governance in the Saarland-Moselle Region	124
4	Methodological Approach	127
4.1	Discussion of Research Design: Mixed Method-Approaches and Sequential Triangulation	127
4.2	Presentation and Discussion of the Empirical Body	130
4.2.1	Qualitative Expert Interviews: Interview Partners and Instrument Design	130
4.2.2	Quantitative Surveys: Sample Selection and Instrument Design	135
4.3	Analysis of Qualitative and Quantitative Research Components	137

5 “Borderlands of Governance” in the Saarland-Moselle Region:
Empirical Insights into the Interplay between Cross-Border
Spatialities and Multilevel Governance 141

5.1 Municipal Perspectives on the Border (Setting)
and on Cross-border Cooperation in the Saarland-Moselle Region: Shifting Border Functions and Notions of Cross-border Spatialities 142

5.1.1 Borders Everywhere? Municipal Perspectives on the Border and the Border Setting 143

5.1.2 “The Border Crossed Us”: Border-Regional Ties Vis-à-Vis National Reflexes Throughout the Covid-19 Pandemic 174

5.1.3 Notions of (Cross-Border) Spatialities: European,
Border-Regional and Local Motives Informing Place-Making through Governance 210

5.1.4 Interim Synthesis and Outlook 226

5.2 Constructing Europe from the Bottom Up: Local Cross-Border Activities within a Multilevel Governance 230

5.2.1 Intermunicipal Cross-Border Cooperation: Forms,
Activities, Trajectories 231

5.2.2 Addressing Challenges to and Empowering
Intermunicipal Cross-Border
Governance—the Potential of Border-Regional Strategies 263

5.3 Borderlands of Governance: Contributions of Empirical
Insights to the Conceptual Discussion of Multilevel
Cross-border Governance 288

5.3.1 On Multilevel Cross-Border Governance and the Emergence of Quasi-Territorial Cross-Border Governance Arrangements 289

5.3.2 On Borderlands of Governance in the Saarland-Moselle Border
Region 293

6 Borderlands of Governance in the Saarland-Moselle Region and Beyond: Summary and Outlook 299

Bibliography 309