

Table of Contents

About the Authors	13
-------------------	----

Henri de Waele

Introduction – Life and Times of a World Court	15
--	----

PART I Establishing the Permanent Court

Arthur Eyffinger

The Hope of Ages	31
------------------	----

Karin van Leeuwen

‘Land of Grotius’, or Representing the Small Nations? The Role of the Netherlands in Establishing the 1922 World Court	97
--	----

Lucas Carlos Lima

From Clóvis Beviláqua to Raul Fernandes: Brazilian (and Latin American?) Participation in the Drafting of the PCIJ’s Statute	125
--	-----

Itai Apter

The Empire of the Rising Sun and the Permanent Court of International Justice – Japan’s Role in the Formation Stage	143
---	-----

PART II The Permanent Court in Operation

Antoine Ollivier

Proceedings before the Permanent Court of International Justice: Design and Early Developments of the Procedure and Working Methods of a World Court	169
--	-----

Table of Contents

P. Sean Morris

The Concept of International Law in the Early Advisory Opinions of the Permanent Court of International Justice, 1922–1930 189

Momchil Milanov

‘Asking the Right Questions’ or ‘A Matter of Taste’: Subject Matter
Preliminary Objections and the Creation of the PCIJ 211

Michel Erpelding

‘Not Courts of the Same Character’: The Permanent Court of International Justice and the Mixed Arbitral Tribunals 241

Christian J. Tams

Epilogue: Two Hague Icons, Three Surprises, and the Virtue of Looking Again 261