

Contents

Acknowledgements — V

Abbreviations — IX

List of Figures — XI

Notes on Contributors — XVII

Johannes Junge Ruhland

Introduction: History, Manuscripts, Making — 1

I Strategies of Production

Henry Ravenhall

Assemblages and History in a Medieval French Manuscript from Corbie, ca. 1295: Copenhagen, Kongelige Biblioteket, GKS 487 f° — 23

Rachel Wilson

Writing with the Book: History through the Codex and the Materiality of Autography — 47

René Hernández

Miscellanies of Histories: Perception of the Past and Historiographical Agency of Late Medieval Compilers — 71

II The Stakes of Adaptation

Kate Falardeau

Writing History with Bede's Martyrology, 800–1200 — 95

Carolyn Cargile

Adaptation and Affect in Orderic Vitalis's Historia ecclesiastica — 117

Lane B. Baker

From Little Egypt to Zurich: Chronicling Romani Immigrants with Late Medieval Manuscripts — 141

VIII — Contents

Antoine Brix
Making History in the Renaissance with Medieval Manuscripts: Jean Le Féron and the Grandes chroniques de France — 171

III Configuring History

Björn Klaus Buschbeck
Medieval Monastic Manuscripts after the Middle Ages: The Case of St. Nikolaus in undis at Strasbourg — 199

Giulia Boitani
History Branches Out: Narrative and Chronology in Cologne, Fondation Martin Bodmer, Cod. Bodmer 147 — 225

Christopher T. Richards
Fabulous History: Painting History in Paris, Bibliothèque de l’Arsenal, MS 5069 — 253

IV Response

Jane Gilbert
Making History with Manuscripts: Response — 287

General Index — 303

Manuscripts Cited — 315